Many aspects of AI are now the subject of peer-reviewed academic research including the increasing use of Chatbots and GenAI in academe and in society at large. The conference was initially launched in 2019 as the European Conference on Artificial Intelligence and Robotics. After a successful inaugural event in Oxford, the conference fell victim to Covid and the following three years were held online. Time was taken in 2023 to refocus this fast-developing area of research and the name of the conference was changed this year to the International Conference on Artificial Intelligence. The Proceedings of the 2025 edition of the conference include academic research papers, PhD research papers, Masters Research papers, and work in progress papers, all of which have been presented and discussed at the ICAIR 2025 conference. The proceedings are of an academic level appropriate to a professional research audience including graduates, postgraduates, doctoral and post-doctoral researchers.
