Science Ed Online:

Science Education Research and Practice in Europe Doris Jorde, Justin Dillon, 2012-12-17 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe Arab States and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on science education in Europe In producing this volume the editors have invited a range of authors to describe their research in the context of developments in the continent and further afield In reading this book you are invited to consider the historical social and political contexts that have driven developments in science education research over the years A unique feature of science education in Europe is the impact of the European Union on research and development over many years A growing number of multi national projects have contributed to the establishment of a community of researchers increasingly accepting of methodological diversity That is not to say that Europe is moving towards homogeneity as this volume clearly shows

Research and Supervision in Mathematics and Science Education John A. Malone, Bill Atweh, Jeffrey Northfield, Jeff Northfield, 2013-11-26 Research and Supervision in Mathematics and Science Education provides student researchers and their supervisors with information about both the essentials of planning conducting reporting and publishing qualitative research and the characteristics of quality supervision It is focused primarily for postgraduate research students in mathematics and science education and their supervisors It will also be of interest to students and faculty in other disciplines that use educational and sociological research paradigms The volume builds on two phenomena of recent years first the increasing momentum of postgraduate research in mathematics and science education and second the resulting need of those involved for knowledge about doing research and about engaging in quality supervision The decision to address both research and supervision in one volume is a response to the fact that faculty who supervise postgraduate research often are in need of resources covering not only aspects of project and thesis supervision but also the knowledge to assist students in research design especially in the qualitative field Drawing on recent research and practice the authors of the chapters in this book illustrate approaches and strategies that have been used successfully with and by postgraduate students The book also has a strong future orientation describing how postgraduate supervision and research will change as more and more students gain access to and make use of the vast array of technological resources now available A necessary and unique addition to books in the field of postgraduate research and supervision this volume's particular appeal stems from its practical approach its creative future perspective and the wide generalizability of the thinking and ideas it presents
