Having Their Say Kristie Bunton,2021-04-16 After Natalie Maines of The Dixie Chicks expressed her opposition to the Iraq War and President Bush in a country music concert she was told to shut up and sing When NFL player Colin Kaepernick protested police brutality by kneeling during the national anthem he was applauded by some and demonized by others Both had their careers irrevocably altered by speaking out for their beliefs This book examines the ethical issues that arise when famous people speak out on issues often unrelated to the performances that brought those figures to public attention It analyzes several celebrity speakers singers Taylor Swift and the Chicks satirist Jon Stewart actor Tom Hanks and athletes Serena Williams Stephen Curry Colin Kaepernick and Naomi Osaka and demonstrates that justifiable speaking requires celebrity speakers journalists and audiences to consider ethical issues regarding platform intent and harm Celebrity speakers must exercise ethical care in a digital world where audiences equate celebrity status with authority and expertise about public issues Finally this book considers how people who are not famous can understand their ethical responsibilities for speaking out about public issues in their own spheres of influence Religion and Sport in North America Jeffrey
