

Young Goodman Brown Homework Answer Key

Comprehension Check Possible responses:

1. Faith is Young Goodman Brown's wife.
2. Goody Cloyse is a pious woman from the village. Later in the story, Goodman Brown finds out that she is actually a friend of the devil.
3. He thinks she is dead because he hears a scream and then sees her pink ribbon caught on a branch.
4. The author describes Goodman Brown as "a stern, a sad, a darkly meditative, a distrustful, if not desperate man."
5. You should include Goodman Brown's leaving his wife to go out into the woods, his meeting with a man who may be the devil, and his seeing other characters from the village he had thought were pious, even his wife. You may add that the ending of the story is ambiguous; was what Goodman Brown saw true, or a dream?

Text Questions Possible responses:

1. (a) The man Goodman Brown first encounters is the Devil. (b) He is surprised because he thought his entire family was good and pious. (c) This knowledge opens Brown's eyes to the prevalence of sin and causes him to eventually despair of resisting the Devil's influence.
2. (a) The people are at the meeting because they are all sinful. (b) The message seems to be that avoiding sin is impossible for anyone.
3. Answers will vary. You may respond that the devil makes a good case by pointing out the hidden misdeeds of everyone; others may think that if people perform enough outwardly good acts, it would be difficult to make a case that these people are naturally evil.
4. Answers will vary. You may respond that Goodman Brown, by displaying a lack of faith and believing what he may have seen or dreamed, did himself a great disservice because his subsequent life was miserable and filled with suspicion.
5. Answers will vary. You may respond that in this story, an individual loses all hope in life when he loses faith in the goodness of his community. The way an individual thinks about society strongly affects that individual's life.
