Information Technology Project Management Jack T. Marchewka, 2016-02-08 The 5th Edition of Jack Marchewka's Information Technology Project Management focuses on how to create measurable organizational value MOV through IT projects The author uses the concept of MOV combined with his own research to create a solid foundation for making decisions throughout the project's lifecycle The book's integration of project management and IT concepts provides students with the tools and techniques they need to develop in this field Changing Concepts of Reading Instruction International Reading Association, International Reading Association. Conference, J. Allen Figurel, 1961 Simulation/games for Learning, 1981 Teaching Every Child to Read Rita Dunn, Brett Elizabeth Blake, 2008-02-08 This book provides not only educators but parents and caretakers with a variety of engaging instructional strategies for K-8 students These approaches enable all students to read easily and enjoyably by utilizing different styles and approaches None typically are used in conventional classrooms but children who either have not mastered or who do not enjoy reading become involved in and energized with active participation When these activities are introduced many children will begin recognizing words stringing them together increase vocabulary and reading within the first four months of beginning if not earlier Teaching Young Children Through Their Individual Learning Styles Rita Dunn, Janet Perrin, 1994 Focuses on the educational needs of K-2 students and specific strategies for identifying their individual learning styles It details thorough instructions on how to develop a comprehensive reading program that successfully matches the appropriate reading approach to the individual student's needs It contains a thorough analysis of the 21 elements of learning style and the methods for recognizing them Details for redesigning classrooms and use of materials to accommodate the physiological emotional and sociological strengths of each student are explored It also contains newly developed resources and age appropriate samples and examples Kindergarten through second grade teachers who are interested in teaching students through their individual learning styles A Longwood Professional Book The Jewish Teachers Handbook Audrey Friedman Marcus, 1980

Shooting and Fishing ,1914 The Nature and Direction of Learning William Henry Burton,1929 As the title indicates a considerable portion of this book is devoted to a consideration of the learning process It is a text that deals more with the theory of method than with the details of classroom procedure The treatment of the direction of learning occupies nearly three fourths of the book and covers the topics commonly discussed by writers in this field Interestingly the author divides this book into five units each of which is subdivided into several problems The typical treatment of a problem includes four phases 1 exploratory and pretest questions 2 a discussion of the problem 3 discussion questions for summarizing and testing and 4 a list of parallel readings The exploratory and pretest questions a distinctive characteristic of this volume are ingenious and serve to stimulate thinking about the problems considered This book with its treatment of methods of teaching should be a highly effective instrument for use in the professional training of teachers The Training School ,1909 College Student Journal ,1998
