Prophetic Secrets Clement Sampa, 2025-09 Who Is a Prophet Direct Definition A prophet is someone chosen by God to speak on His behalf In Scripture prophets receive divine revelation through visions dreams or a direct word from the Lord and then accurately communicate God's heart purposes and sometimes future plans to His people Key Characteristics of Biblical Prophets Divine Calling Prophets aren't self appointed God calls them often unexpectedly and equips them by the Holy Spirit to fulfill their task Exodus 3:1-10 Amos 3:7 Messenger of God Their primary role is to deliver God's exact words whether it's a comfort a call to repentance or a warning of judgment Jeremiah 1:7-10 Forthtelling and Foretelling They forthtell God's will for the present calling out injustice or idolatry and sometimes foretell future events as God reveals them 2 Peter 1:21 Moral Integrity and Courage Living in alignment with what they proclaim is vital Prophets often face opposition yet they stand firm because they carry God's authority 1 Kings 18 Jeremiah 20:7-9 Primary Roles of Prophets Communicate God's Message Act as the mouthpiece of Heaven declaring what God wants His people to know Call to Repentance Confront sin in individuals and nations pointing them back to God's covenant Advise and Counsel Provide guidance to kings and communities based on divine insight e.g Nathan and David Announce Future Events Reveal God's unfolding plan often to encourage faithfulness or warn of coming judgment Intercede in Prayer Pray on behalf of others standing in the gap between a holy God and a wayward people

The Book of the Secrets of Enoch the Prophet Richard Laurence, 2020-09-28 In the revised Version of the Epistle of Jude we read the following words Enoch also the seventh from Adam prophesied of these saying Behold the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints to execute judgment upon all and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him Modern research sees in the Epistle of Jude a work of the second century but as orthodox theologians accept its contents as the inspired utterance of an Apostle let us diligently search the Hebrew Scriptures for this important forecast of the second Advent of the Messiah In vain we turn over the pages of the sacred Canon not even in the Apocrypha can we trace one line from the pen of the marvellous being to whom uninterrupted immortality is assigned by apostolic interpretation of Genesis 22:1-18 Were the prophecies of Enoch therefore accepted as a Divine revelation on that momentous day when Jesus explained the Scriptures after his resurrection to Jude and his apostolic brethren and have we moderns betrayed our trust by excluding an inspired record from the Bible Reverting to the second century of Christianity we find Irenaeus and Clement of Alexandria citing the Book of Enoch without questioning its sacred character Thus Irenaeus assigning to the Book of Enoch an authenticity analogous to that of Mosaic literature affirms that Enoch although a man filled the office of God's messenger to the angels Tertullian who flourished at the close of the first and at the beginning of the second century whilst admitting that the Scripture of Enoch is not received by some because it is not included in the Hebrew Canon speaks of the author as the most ancient prophet Enoch and of the book as the divinely inspired autograph of that immortal patriarch preserved by Noah in the ark or miraculously reproduced by him through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit Tertullian adds But as Enoch has spoken in the same scripture of the Lord and every scripture suitable for edification is divinely inspired let us reject nothing which belongs to us It may now seem to have been disavowed by the Jews like all other scripture which speaks of Christ a fact which should cause us no surprise as they were not to receive him even when personally addressed by himself These views Tertullian confirms by appealing to the testimony of the Apostle Jude 1 The Book of Enoch was therefore as sacred as the Psalms or Isaiah in the eyes of the famous theologian on whom modern orthodoxy relies as the chief canonist of New Testament scripture Origen A D 254 in quoting Hebrew literature assigns to the Book of Enoch the same authority as to the Psalms In polemical discussion with Celsus he affirms that the work of the antediluvian patriarch was not accepted in the Churches as Divine and modern theologians have accordingly assumed that he rejected its inspiration but the extent to which he adopts its language and ideas discloses personal conviction that Enoch was one of the greatest of the prophets Thus in his treatise on the angels we read We are not to suppose that a special office has been assigned by mere accident to a particular angel as to Raphael the work of curing and healing to Gabriel the direction of wars to Michael the duty of hearing the prayers and supplications of men From what source but assumed revelation could Origen obtain and publish these circumstantial details of ministerial administration in heaven Turning to the Book of Enoch we read After this I besought the angel of peace who proceeded with me to explain all that was concealed I said to him Who are those whom I have seen on the four sides and whose words I have heard and written down He replied The first is the merciful the patient the holy Michael The second is he who presides over every suffering and every affliction of the sons of men the holy Raphael The third who presides over all that is powerful is Gabriel And the fourth who presides over repentance and the hope of those who will inherit eternal life is Phanuel We thus discover the source of Origen s apparently superhuman knowledge and detect his implicit trust in the Book of Enoch as a Divine revelation When primitive Christianity had freely appropriated the visions of Enoch as the materials of constructive dogmas this remarkable book gradually sank into oblivion disappeared out of Western Christendom and was eventually forgotten by a Church which unconsciously perpetuated its teaching as the miraculous revelations of Christianity
