love for righteousness and truth By refusing to resist the ill will of others or the stress of circumstances for the sake of greater usefulness and a clearer point of view we deepen our conviction of righteousness as the fundamental law of life and broaden our horizon so as to appreciate varying and opposite points of view The only non resistance that brings this power is the kind which yields mere personal and selfish considerations for the sake of principles Selfish and weak yielding must always do harm Unselfish yielding on the other hand strengthens the will and increases strength of purpose as the petty obstacles of mere self love are removed Concentration alone cannot long remain wholesome for it needs the light of growing self knowledge to prevent its becoming self centred Yielding alone is of no avail for in itself it has no constructive power But if we try to look at ourselves as we really are we shall find great strength in yielding where only our small and private interests are concerned and concentrating upon living the broad principles of righteousness which must directly or indirectly affect all those with whom we come into contact
