

6 TIPS TO IMPROVE YOUR READING COMPREHENSION

One of the best ways to work on your standardized test reading score is to boost your reading comprehension ability. Consider these tips if you're interested in improving yours.

READ FOR PLEASURE AS OFTEN AS POSSIBLE

You can read the types of books and articles you like, but also read stories that challenge you. Consider reading dry or complicated material now and then to get accustomed to understanding stories that aren't naturally compelling.

CUT ALL DISTRACTIONS WHEN READING

You'll understand the material better when you have no distractions around. Fortunately, you aren't likely to have many distractions on test day, when the room is quiet and temperature-controlled.

USE A HIGHLIGHTER OR TAKE NOTES OF KEY POINTS WHEN YOU READ

During the actual test, you'll be able to underline important words in passages. You can also do this when reading for pleasure so you get used to pinpointing the parts of the text that are most important to your comprehension of the story.

STUDY CHALLENGING WORDS TO BOOST YOUR VOCABULARY

If you don't understand the words you're reading, look them up afterward so you broaden your vocabulary.

DON'T TAKE ON TOO MUCH TEXT

If you're just getting started with reading more, don't try and read too much at once, because after a while, it might start to run together. Give yourself 15- or 20-minute reading periods and take breaks after those time periods end.

SUMMARIZE WHAT YOU READ AFTER FINISHING A CHAPTER

A great way to solidify your comprehension of a topic is to summarize what you've read afterward. You can do this by writing a quick summary or talking about it with friends.

Omni Learning Guide to Reading Comprehension Strategies Lorraine Gerstl, 2019-04-04 I know I should read more but I m so busy it takes time to read and so much of what I try to read doesn't really make that much sense to me. Those can be the words of a third grader or just as easily the words of an adult. In our hurry-up world of bits and bytes and the need for instant gratification, the sad and simple truth is that people don't read as much as they used to, and more tragic, they understand what they read far less than in the past. In this practical hands-on Guide, the author, a Master Teacher with more than thirty-five years of practical success teaching both children and adults of all ages, shares her ideas on teaching reading comprehension strategies. The underlying message she delivers is: Comprehensive Strategies are important because Reading is an Active, not a Passive Process. Reading can seem incredibly complicated. It involves not only making sense of the squiggles on a page, deciphering the alphabetic code, and figuring out the words, but reading also entails giving meaning to understanding and thereby enjoying what we read. Reading comprehension is absolutely critical to communication, whether it involves a doctor healing a patient, a lawyer presenting an argument in court, an astronaut needing to know how to repair a malfunction when he is thousands of miles above the earth, or most important, enriching and widening the scope of your life. In fact, you cannot think of one area of learning or practice where understanding what you read is not absolutely essential. The more you understand what you read, the less of a drudgery and the more of a joy it becomes. Reading is the key that unlocks the door to the universe. Get ready to start a great adventure and to grab hold of the key that will unlock the door to your universe. Lorraine Gerstl is truly a woman for all seasons. She taught deaf children in her native South Africa before emigrating to the United States, where she raised her own children, then recommenced her teaching career at Briarcliff Academy, Robert Louis Stevenson, before moving to Santa Catalina for nearly three decades as its beloved third grade teacher. Since her retirement in 2017, she formed a partnership with Margie Lotz, a colleague from Santa Catalina Omni Learning Center, which provides educational enrichment for homeschoolers. Lorraine has produced, directed, and acted in plays, musicals, and variety shows, picked up a National Disney Teacher of the Year nomination, and traveled a good slice of the world in the process. An editor and internationally published writer who won't hesitate to stretch her students to reach the stars, she still revels in her favorite title, Mom.
