Digital Platforms and Global Law Bassan, Fabio,2021-11-17 Digital Platforms and Global Law focuses on digital platforms and identifies their relevant legal profiles in terms of transnational and international law It qualifies digital platforms as private legal orders which exercise the legislative executive and para jurisdictional power within them Starting from this assumption the author studies the relationship between these orders and state transnational and international orders and concludes that the power of states to impose rules on platforms is different in terms of their external in relation to other platforms and states and internal in their own legal system action New Media and Freedom of Expression

András Koltay,2019-07-25 The principles of freedom of expression have been developed over centuries How are they reserved and passed on How can large internet gatekeepers be required to respect freedom of expression and to contribute actively to a diverse and plural marketplace of ideas These are key issues for media regulation and will remain so for the foreseeable decades The book starts with the foundations of freedom of expression and freedom of the press and then goes on to explore the general issues concerning the regulation of the internet as a specific medium It then turns to analysing the legal issues relating to the three most important gatekeepers whose operations directly affect freedom of expression ISPs search engines and social media platforms Finally it summarises the potential future regulatory and media policy directions The book takes a comparative legal approach focusing primarily on English and American regulations case law and jurisprudential debates but it also details the relevant international developments Council of Europe European Union as well as the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights We Have Received A Complaint (US Edition) Matt Malone,2024-04-30 We used to go to court to enforce our rights Now we do it at the office Workplace investigations are everywhere From complaints at Fox BBC TVO and The Ellen DeGeneres Show to sports teams like the Seattle Mariners the Boston Celtics and the Dallas Mavericks as well as Fortune 500 companies governments universities and schools seemingly every week brings a new announcement of another workplace under scrutiny As conflicts increase in a new era of behavioral expectations offices are being transformed into forums of informal justice Investigators are summoned to adjudicate and peers become witnesses in poorly understood often opaque proceedings The shift is fraught for all involved complainants often feel the investigations fail to right wrongs respondents regularly decry them as exercises in shunning employers wonder how they fell into this role

The Effects of Facebook Usage on Students' Academic Performance in Lusaka

Norah Mpundu, 2022-09-22 Master's Thesis from the year 2022 in the subject Pedagogy Media Pedagogy grade 4 A University of Zambia course Master in Management strategy language English abstract The study's primary goal is to ascertain how Facebook usage affects students' academic performance at the University of Zambia UNZA postgraduate Campus Using a descriptive mixed method this study analyzes a sample of five hundred and thirty-three (533) students' survey responses collected using Microsoft Teams and lecturers' interviews on the effect of Facebook use among students' academic performance and measures these results against similar studies Reasons for Facebook usage were found to play the most positive significant role in students' academic performance while Facebook usage and improved academic performance through Facebook use showed a negative correlation on students' academic performance The study answers the correlation between why students use Facebook and their academic performance Further studies are needed to establish how Facebook usage can be incorporated for educational use and social and educational purposes West Virginia Law Review, 2009

CDS Review, 2010 Impact of Facebook Usage on Students' Academic Performance Fromsa Bedassa, 2014-07-29

Thesis M A from the year 2014 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing language English abstract Today Facebook is considered as one of the most popular platforms for online social networking among youth and as many researches show university students The purpose of this study is to assess the impact of social networking sites i.e Facebook on students' academic performance The study was carried out in Wollega University with regular undergraduate students in focus A questionnaire was designed to assess impact of Facebook usage on Student and was administered to 384 students selected using stratified sampling technique Variables identified are time spent on Facebook addiction to Facebook and academic performance The Pearson product moment correlation coefficient was used to examine the relationship between addiction to Facebook and time spent on Facebook and students' academic performance Furthermore a multiple linear regression was carried out to determine the relative contribution of addiction to Facebook and time spent on Facebook to students' academic performance An analysis of the results was carried out using the SPSS software package And the findings of this study shows that time spent on Facebook and addiction to it negatively and significantly affects students' academic performance The National Culinary Review, 2010 Minnesota Law Review, 2016 Hotel & Catering

Review ,2009 Translation as a Social Activity Minako O'Hagan,2011 The new communications infrastructure based on Web 2.0 suggests a formidable impact on translation. The prevailing technological trends for openness, sharing, and collaboration are prompting participation by the Internet crowd in well-established professional areas of work, leading to the emergence of community translation or so-called translation crowdsourcing. Under the theme of community translation as a social activity and its possible consequences, contributors in this volume consolidate the developments to date and cover the latest initiatives while addressing pertinent issues arising from the blurred boundary between professionals and non-professionals. Fur Trade Review Weekly ,1924 How the online presence of a tourist destination affects the country brand. The Case of Lithuania Viktorija Širvinskytė,2016-09-28 Master's Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Tourism Miscellaneous grade 1-3 Stralsund University of Applied Sciences Faculty of Business Studies course Tourism Development Strategies language English abstract This thesis is aimed to test a hypothesis of the country brand's reliance on the online presence. The created evaluation model used in the primary research of this paper determines whether there is enough evidence in the data gathered to indicate that the online presence of a tourist destination corresponds to its country brand's rank. The research is focused on the online presence of Lithuania as a weak ranking country brand. The online presence results of Lithuania as a tourist destination are compared to the examples of two stronger country brands. The conclusions derived from the comparison of the results determine the success of the online presence of Lithuania, establish whether the hypothesis of the thesis is true or not, while noting the limitations and possible errors of the research and provide the suggestions for the country brand and online presence improvements.

Pharmacy Management: Essentials for All Practice Settings: Fourth Edition Shane P. Desselle, David P. Zgarrick, Greg Alston,2016-06-05 1 Pharmacy Management Text As pharmacy practice moves from a product orientation to a patient orientation, there are unique challenges that arise in managing the value-added services that pharmacists are developing to meet patient needs in medication therapy management. A section of this book is dedicated to the planning, implementation, and reimbursement of these new patient care services offered by pharmacists. Several chapters are dedicated to describing the risks inherent in pharmacy practice and the impact that laws, regulations, and medication errors have on pharmacy management. The final section describes how management functions are applied in specific pharmacy practice settings: independent chain health systems, managed environments, safety net operations, and settings in unique health systems.

HOW EACH CHAPTER IS ORGANIZED Each chapter is divided into several sections to facilitate the reader's understanding and application of the material. Chapters begin with a list of learning objectives that outline the major topics to be addressed. A brief scenario is used to describe how a pharmacy student or pharmacist may need or apply the information described in this chapter in their daily lives or practice. Questions at the start of each chapter provide direction and assist the reader in understanding what they can expect to learn The text of each chapter provides comprehensive coverage of the content and theory underlying the major concepts References to the management and pharmacy literature are commonly used to provide readers with links to additional background information Explanations and applications are also used to help readers better understand the need to master and apply each concept Questions at the end of each chapter encourage readers to think about what they have just learned and apply these concepts in new ways WHAT STUDENTS WILL GAIN FROM THIS BOOK If you are a pharmacy student this book will help you gain an appreciation for the roles of management in pharmacy practice regardless of your future position or practice setting This book will also provide you with a variety of management theories and tools that you can apply in your daily life For educators this book has been designed as a comprehensive pharmacy management textbook As a whole it is meant to be used in survey courses that cover many areas of pharmacy management The section format also allows the book to be used in courses that focus on specific pharmacy management functions or topics The sections and content of each chapter are meant not only to provide valuable information that is easy for students to understand but also to stimulate further discussion and motivate students to learn more on their own The Conference Board Review ,2009 Harvard Law Review ,2014
