Bengali Science Fiction Story:

The Inhumans and Other Stories Bodhisattva Chattopadhyay, 2024-03-12 The first English translation of a cult science fiction favorite by Hemendra Kumar Roy one of the giants of early Bangla literature and other sf stories from the colonial period in India Kalpavigyan science fiction written to excite Bengali speakers about science as well as to persuade them to evolve beyond the limitations of religion caste and class became popular in the early years of the twentieth century Translated into English for the first time in this collection you ll discover The Inhumans 1935 Hemendrakumar Roy s satirical novella about a lost race of Bengali supermen in Uganda Also included are Jagadananda Ray s Voyage to Venus 1895 Nanigopal Majumdar s The Mystery of the Giant 1931 and Manoranjan Bhattacharya s The Martian Purana 1931 THE GREEN MEN Satyajit Ray, Premendra Mitra, Adrish Bardhan, Dilip Roychowdhury, 2021-05-02 The story that vanished into thin air Many years ago when the triumphant march of science fiction in Bengali literature had just begun the Sahityabashor programme of All India Radio featured an extraordinary story read by Satyajit Ray Premendra Mitra Dilip Roychowdhury and Adrish Bardhan A single story None of them revealed the entire plot to the others Premendra Mitra began it and Satyajit Ray ended it Dilip Roychowdhury and Adrish Bardhan took the story forward None of the three had told one another or Ray how the story should end He composed the final episode with a combination of marvellous imaginativeness and superb craft And he created a sensation when telling his story With his inimitable baritone he proved that writing and narrating are not the same thing that the written word can create a deeply resounding work of art through speech He had asked for a glass of water to take into the studio When the recording was complete everyone who listened to the playback was overwhelmed The title of The Green Men was given by Premendra Mitra The idea for a story with different episodes contributed by various writers was his too The story however had vanished into thin air after being read on air though the tape survives It was published twice in All India Radio s Betar Jagat magazine and subsequently in Fantastic magazine It does not appear in any collection of stories by Satyajit Ray Premendra Mitra Dilip Roychowdhury or Adrish Bardhan This is the first ever English translation of The Green Men being published as an independent story We thank and acknowledge Kalpabiswa for publishing the story in Bengali as Shobuj Manush

Science Fiction in Colonial India, 1835-1905 Mary Ellis Gibson, 2019-03-30 Science Fiction in Colonial India 1835-1905 shows for the first time how science fiction writing developed in India years before the writings of Jules Verne and H G Wells The five stories presented in this collection in their cultural and political contexts help form a new picture of English language writing in India and a new understanding of the connections among science fiction modernity and empire NP Speculative fiction developed early in India in part because the intrinsic dysfunction and violence of colonialism encouraged writers there to project alternative futures whether utopian or dystopic The stories in Science Fiction in Colonial India 1835-1905 created by Indian and British writers responded to the intellectual ferment and political instabilities of colonial India They add an important dimension to our understanding of Victorian empire science fiction and speculative fictional narratives They provide new examples of the imperial and the anti imperial imaginations at work
