VOCABULARY

(20points)

Read the text below and choose which expression (A, B, C or D) best fits each space.

A billion people in the world speak English, two-thirds of the world's scientists write in English, and 80 per cent of the world's electronic information is (1)_____ in English. One result is that the British are terribly (2)_____ about learning other languages. The most important factor in language learning is (3)_____, and the British just do not have it. Even so, the British are not really smug and self-satisfied about the world status of their language. Most British people are quite well (4)_____ that today it is out of their hands: the reasons for the popularity of English are (5)_____ lost in history, or something to do with the superpower on the other side of the Atlantic. Something which has helped the language in its adaptations is non-authoritarian (6)_____ which has meant that there is no big grammar book which lays down the law. Software makers such as Microsoft (7)_____ style and grammar checkers in their word-processing. These are still fairly primitive, and most people quite rightly (8)_____ them. But as they become more sophisticated, there is a (9)_____ that they will take on the role of the grammar (10)_____.

READING

Read through the passage and then continue with Reading Comprehension exercises below.

My surname "Kuti" is a normal Hungarian surname – it means something like "Wells" ...as in the places where you get water out of the ground. By a strange coincidence "Kuti" is also a name in Nigerian. In the Yoruba language it means "death cannot be caused by any human being". Now I don't think that coincidences have any special meaning most of the time – but in this case it is an example of the power of music to tell you things that are impossible to find out any other way.
