

The main workspace is divided into two primary sections. The upper section is a piano roll, where a purple track is selected. It displays a melodic line with notes and stems. Below the piano roll is a mixer section, which includes a fader for the selected track and various control knobs and buttons. The lower section of the workspace is a multi-track mixer, showing a grid of tracks with faders and volume meters. The tracks are color-coded and labeled with names like 'Kick', 'Snare', and 'Bass'.

This section contains the mixer console. It features a series of vertical faders and meters for each track, allowing for volume and gain control. Below the faders are routing options, including a 'Send' knob and a 'Return' knob. The interface is designed for precise audio mixing and signal routing.
