Evidence Summary for H& R Block College Financial Aid Application Assistance. Top Tier Evidence Initiative Coalition for Evidence-based Policy, 2012 U S social programs set up to address important problems often fall short by funding specific models strategies interventions that are not effective When evaluated in scientifically rigorous studies social interventions in K 12 education job training crime prevention and other areas are frequently found ineffective or marginally effective Interventions that produce sizable sustained effects on important life outcomes tend to be the exception The Top Tier Evidence Initiative seeks to assist policy officials in identifying interventions meeting the Congressional Top Tier evidence standard defined in recent legislative provisions as well designed randomized controlled trials showing sizeable sustained effects on important outcomes This evidence summary details and evaluates an intervention which provided streamlined assistance in completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid or FAFSA which in 2008 was eight pages in length with over 100 questions and included three additional worksheets with nearly 40 questions Key elements of the assistance were 1 specially designed software used the family s tax return data to answer most items on the FAFSA 2 the H 3 the tax professional provided immediate estimates of the amount of financial aid the targeted family member was eligible for and the net tuition cost of four nearby public colleges 4 if all FAFSA information was complete the tax professional offered to submit the FAFSA electronically to the U S Department of Education and 5 if not all information was complete a call center phoned the family after the interview to collect answers to the remaining questions and then facilitated submission of the FAFSA to the Department of Education This intervention increased federal financial aid payments by an average of 375 per participant The Panel finds that this intervention meets the Congressional Top Tier evidence standard Intervention benefits and costs are discussed

Aero Edmond Percy Noël, 1911 The Discounts and Deals at the Nation's 360 Best Colleges Bruce G. Hammond, 1999-08-20 From Parent Soup the leading Internet parenting site comes the only book that reveals how the financial aid process really works today and how savvy families can pay less at the nation s best colleges Bruce Hammond shows how discounts and deals can reduce the sicker price at top colleges nationwide even for families who would not have qualified for need based aid in the past Since the Justice Department broke up financial aid collaboration among the elite colleges in 1991 and because of escalating competitive pressures colleges now use financial aid to compete for students rather than merely to cover need The relatively uniform system of aid that existed years ago is gone replaced by one in which aid varies depending on the school's resources and its place in the market. Combining financial aid information with a detailed guide to the nation's 360 best colleges, the book reveals which colleges offer the best need-based aid, which colleges give the biggest merit scholarships, how to qualify for scholarships and discounts, when and how to negotiate for a better aid package. Discounts and Deals at the Nation's 360 Best Colleges cuts through the confusing world of financial aid with no-nonsense advice and insider lists and rankings. It is an indispensable resource for parents and students as they enter one of the most important times in their lives.
