Houghton Mifflin Math Central: Student text, 1998 Sports Crazy Steven J. Overman, 2019-02-11 Sports Crazy How Sports Are Sabotaging American Schools exposes the excesses of middle and high school sports and the detrimental effects our sports obsession has on American education Institutions are increasingly emulating college and professional sports models and losing sight of a host of educational and health goals Steven J Overman describes how this agenda is driven largely by partisan fans and parents of athletes who exert an inordinate influence on school priorities and he explains how and why school administrators shockingly and consistently capitulate to these demands The author underscores the incongruity of public schools involved in an entertainment business and the effects this diversion has on academic integrity learning life experience and overall educational outcomes Overman examines out of control school sports within the context of a school s educational mission and curriculum with telling reference to impacts on physical education He explores as well the outsized place of interscholastic sports beyond the classroom and scrutinizes the distorted relationship between intramural or recreational sports and elitist varsity athletics Overman s chapter on tackle football explains many reasons why this sport should be eliminated from the school extracurriculum and replaced by flag or touch football Overman presents a brief history of interscholastic sports and he compares and contrasts the American experience of school sponsored sport to the European model of community based clubs Which approach better serves students Overman recommends reforms in the context of a radical proposal to phase out interscholastic sports in favor of an intramural or club model This approach would alleviate such problems as elitism and gender bias and reign in hypercompetitiveness while freeing schools to educate students rather than provide public entertainment Abstracts of Papers Presented to the American Mathematical Society American Mathematical Society, 2006 50 Great Reproducible Writing Workouts Stephen Krensky, 1999-08 Short story writing activities designed to help children use their creativity while communicating their ideas INFORMS Annual Meeting Institute for Operations Research and the Management Sciences.
