running an eco friendly factory in India a rickshaw puller in Bangladesh and a private equity manager in Hong Kong Skees organizes the material into five sections Entrepreneurship Industry and Transportation Farming Food and Animals Finance and Technology and Music an environmental activist in American coal country a banana farmer in Uganda a college admissions counselor in Rwanda and a fringe diplomat in Tel Aviv Few books dig so deeply into life as it s actually lived with such unsparing intimacy Prose Skees s own prose is sharp clear and purposeful but outside of introductions and some notes most of the book come straight from the mouths of her subjects through first person monologue Skees breaks the chapters up into short labeled sections This is helpful for skimmers but the shortness of the individual sections gives the chapters a stop and start feeling impeding narrative momentum Originality This isn t the first book to survey workers in their own words about work nor even the first one by Skees to do so but the author has selected a fresh fascinating cross section of people to reveal truths about the world and this current moment Execution The book offers insights wisdom challenges to orthodox thinking and some arresting first person storytelling It s both eye opening and a pleasure to learn about the day to day work of a Zambian mobile money agent and to discover how that work is vital to a population outside of the banking system That said the narrators individual voices sound somewhat similar to each other and the speakers too rarely offer up surprising or engaging anecdotes The emphasis here is strongly on the work itself and the sociopolitical context that created the opportunity for such work There s great value in capturing that but the book might prove more enticing for general audiences with a greater emphasis on voice and storytelling Booklife Publisher s Weekly Changing Times ,1986
