Resources in Education, 1986 Social and Emotional Curriculum for Gifted Students Mark Hess, 2021-09-23 The Social and Emotional Curriculum for Gifted Students series provides the gifted resource specialist regular classroom teacher or counselor with the tools they need to help gifted students in grades 3-5 develop interpersonal skills, reflect on their often intense emotions, and express their creativity. The grade 5 book contains five units and more than 50 hours of instruction. Shares helpful directions for implementing lessons and connecting content across the curriculum. Addresses psychosocial skills. Features critical thinking activities, hands-on building and design, reading, writing, creativity, and math and science connections. Covers relevant topics including resilience, growth mindset, perfectionism, empathy, self-understanding, and identity, friendship, and what it means to be gifted. Each classroom-tested lesson addresses one or more affective standards from the National Association for Gifted Children, psychosocial development areas for gifted learners, and academic standards.

Exploring Mathematics Through Literature Diane Thiessen, 2004 This collection of articles and lessons provides classroom examples of how to use children's literature to teach mathematics effectively in prekindergarten through eighth grade. The articles focus on five content strands: number and operations, algebra, geometry, measurement and data analysis, and probability, and describe how the different authors have used specific books to help their students learn mathematics. Most of the articles involve communication, problem solving, representation, and reasoning, and some of them address connections. Helpful teacher notes indicate the grade range, topic, literature selection, featured in the lesson materials, needed discussion of the mathematics, and questions for students. Blackline masters of recording sheets are also included for most lessons. Math Centers, Grades 2-3 Evan-Moor, Jo Ellen Moore, Jill Norris, 2004-07 Take it To Your Seat Math Centers Grades 2-3 contain 14 full-color learning centers that provide students with an engaging way to practice essential grade-level math skills through completing meaningful application activities. Some of the skills practiced include number order, fractional parts, money, and time, computation, measurement, graphs, geometric shapes, and many more. Resources in Education
