The Final Cut Denis Markell,2022-04-26 An hilarious coming-of-age story about home, friendship, and learning that sometimes the most exciting adventures happen behind the scenes. Alex Davis is convinced that seventh grade is going to be his year. After spending all summer at skate camp, he knows he'll finally be seen as one of the cool kids until he's mistakenly put in the wrong elective. Now, instead of taking a popular video games class with his friends, he's stuck in filmmaking with hipster teacher Pablo and a group of eccentric classmates. But when it's announced that their films will be entered in the school's annual Golden Reel competition, Alex becomes determined to claim first prize and salvage his seventh grade year. With the help of his longtime crush, his best friend, and a peculiar new student, Alex sets out to make a masterpiece. Soon, he discovers that someone is trying to sabotage his film and finds himself embroiled in a mystery one that leads him and his crew to conniving classmates, traitorous teachers, and even corrupt city politicians.

Aging Moderns Scott Herring,2022-12-13 What happens when the avant-garde grows old? Examining a group of writers and artists who continued the modernist experiment into later life, Scott Herring reveals how their radical artistic principles set out a new path for creative aging. Aging Moderns provides portraits of writers and artists who sought out or employed unconventional methods and collaborations up until the early twenty-first century. Herring finds Djuna Barnes performing the principles of high modernism not only in poetry but also in pharmacy orders and grocery lists In mystery novels featuring Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas along with modernist souvenir collections the gay writer Samuel Steward elaborated a queer theory of aging and challenged gay male ageism The Harlem Renaissance dancer Mabel Hampton dispelled stereotypes about aging through her queer of color performances at the Lesbian Herstory Archives Herring explores Ivan Albright s magic realist portraits of elders Tillie Olsen s writings on the aging female worker and the surrealist works made by Charles Henri Ford and his caregiver Indra Bahadur Tamang at the Dakota apartment building in New York City Showcasing previously unpublished experimental art and writing this deeply interdisciplinary book unites new modernist studies American studies disability studies and critical age studies Aging Moderns rethinks assumptions about literary creativity the depiction of old age and the boundaries of modernism American Childhood Todd Brewster,2023-05-23 American childhood is a carefully edited photographic record of the lives of American children accompanied by brief thoughtful essays on aspects of their experiences There are over 200 pictures of children in this book ranging over the history of the American nation Some of the people in these pictures would go on to fame or infamy But for the great bulk of them a photograph is likely the only public trace they have left behind My Family and I Adam Gussow,2025-02-25 An inspiring memoir about the author s lifelong quest for racial reconciliation the love that sustains his interracial family in contemporary Mississippi and the Yes we can hope for American renewal that fades after the deaths of Trayvon Martin Michael Brown and the despair driven rise of Black Lives Matter What has happened to the dream of beloved community embraced by Martin Luther King Jr and the civil rights movement of the early 1960s the vision of a just humane and colorblind America a nation of black and white together animated by the spirit of mutual respect and strengthened by the bonds of brotherly love As Adam Gussow shows in this urgently needed new book the dream although pressured on every front remains alive At the heart of My Family and I is Gussow s determination in King s terms to live out the true meaning of America s creed a quest for transracial brotherhood that takes him from a blues partnership forged on the streets of 1980s Harlem through graduate training at Princeton and decades later a transformative course on the blues literary tradition that he shares with inmates at Mississippi s notorious Parchman Farm Anchoring Gussow s quest is a story of enduring love a playful soulful interracial romance between the newly hired professor at Ole Miss and his soon to be wife Sherrie that blossoms with the birth of a musically gifted son Shaun As America explodes with protest and riots in the summer of 2020 after the death of George Floyd as social justice fundamentalists insist on stigmatizing whiteness and hardening the color line rather than healing the divisions that plague us Gussow is forced to fight for what he loves not just the sanctity of his family circle but King s dream of beloved community My Family and I gifts the reader with hope for a future beyond America s seemingly insoluble racial dilemmas Motherhood vs. Marxism Conrad Riker,101-01-01 Discover the Forbidden Truths They Don t Want You to Know Why are men today blamed for society s failures while being stripped of authority How did
