Claude Simon:

Claude Simon Celia Britton,2014-09-19 This is a major study of the Nobel prize winning French novelist Claude Simon Simon is a complex figure for all that he writes in a distinctively modern fictional tradition exemplified by Proust Joyce Beckett and Robbe Grillet his novels contain strong elements of visual representation alongside a very different kind of free floating anti realist writing The Novels of Claude Simon J. A. E. Loubère,2019-06-30 This lucid and illuminating study traces the development of an extraordinary experimental writer from his earliest work of the 1940 s to his most recent fiction Ms Loub re assesses Simon s aims and achievements and parallels his development as a novelist to the development of the modern novel itself showing how both moved from traditionalist forms and material toward the highly idiosyncratic New Novel After discussing his early works she devotes a chapter each to Le Vent L Herbe La Route des Flandres Le Palace Histoire La Bataille de Pharsale Les Corps conducteurs and Triptyque Step by step she points out the changes in technique and focus that occur in each succeeding novel as Simon rejects conventional forms and introduces new ones Claude Simon Jean H. Duffy,Alastair B. Duncan,2002-01-01 This collection of essays celebrates the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon Scholars reconsider the fifty years of Simon s fiction in the light of his large scale autobiographical novel Le Jardin des Plantes 1997 From a variety of perspectives postmodernist psychoanalytic aesthetic chapters reflect on the central paradox of Simon s work his writing and rewriting of an experience of war so disruptive and traumatic that words can never be adequate to communicate it Understanding Claude Simon Ralph William Sarkonak,1990 In 1985 Claude Simon won the Nobel Prize for Literature This book provides an introduction to and survey of the most important novels written by a man considered by many to be the most important and innovative writer of the French New Novel group The book s introduction situates Simon in the context of 20th century French literature Ten chapters are devoted to the principle works published by Simon from The Wind 1957 to his masterpiece The Georgics 1981 The bibliography lists the most significant critical studies in English and French devoted to his work Claude Simon Alina Cherry,2016-08-16 Claude Simon Fashioning the Past by Writing the Present considers the aesthetic cultural and philosophical facets of a temporal paradox in the works of French novelist Claude Simon 1913 2005 and its broader implications for the study of narrative and for cultural and post modern theory This paradox emerges from the problematic representation of the past through an aesthetic rooted in an exclusive valorization of the present In his 1985 Nobel speech as well as on other numerous occasions Simon expressed a fascination with simultaneity through the provocative claim that he never wrote about the past but attempted to capture only what was happening during the writing process that is in the present of writing as he put it Simon s seemingly unambiguous claim raises significant issues and contradictions that become extensively apparent when the statement is considered in the light of his fictional works since these must be construed for the most part as explorations of the past In this study Alina Cherry propose to look at the tensions that arise from this paradox and examine the present of writing holistically that is both as a stylistic device and within the thematic context of Simon's works in order to assess its capacity for becoming an instrument of ontological and epistemological inquiry that can also intervene powerfully in the decisive philosophical and socio-political debates that have animated the cultural landscape of post-World War II France. Simon's vivid portrayals of suffering and devastation open new ways of understanding the impact of some of the most traumatic historical events of the twentieth century: the two World Wars and the Spanish Civil War. This impact is necessarily connected with a need to tell these events and to tell them in highly innovative ways, namely by creating a distinctive style that revolutionizes the outworn narrative traditions of a world whose very foundations have been shattered by the chaos of war and effectively undermines various institutions and dominant socio-cultural structures, revealing implicitly and explicitly a strong ethical vein.

Reading Between the Lines Jean H. Duffy, 1998-01-01. This is the first extended analysis of Simon's novels, examining the relationship between the work of the French Nobel prize-winning novelist Claude Simon and that of a number of visual artists whose work he has used as stimuli in the production of his novels.

Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08. The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world. Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form, explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important. Similarly, an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel, not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre. A wide range of topic entries explore the history, criticism, theory, production, dissemination, and reception of the novel. A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long
