Earful of China Sean Han,2026-01-05 Earful of China is not a book you simply read it s a place you enter Instead of explaining China through politics statistics or stereotypes this book invites you to listen Each chapter pairs two sounds one familiar enough to welcome a Western ear and one deeply local that reveals how people actually live Pop songs leaking through shopping malls Street vendors singing their trade Teahouses that hum with time Operas performed in unexpected places Night gatherings where music isn t entertainment it s a social contract Written as a journey across cities neighborhoods and moments Earful of China blends travel writing cultural anthropology and intimate storytelling It shows how sound carries memory power tenderness and resistance and how algorithms platforms and AI are reshaping what gets heard and what fades away This is a book for curious readers who want to feel China rather than decode it No lectures No slogans Just human life tuned carefully to the frequency of everyday sound Put on headphones if you can The ear is a passport
