The Human Paradox Frank Gaffikin, 2023-06-16 In The Human Paradox Worlds Apart in a Connected World author Frank Gaffikin probes widely and meticulously into our past and present to analyse the connections between the many acute polarisations that mark contemporary times Addressing profound issues related to Trumpism Brexit the outbreak of Covid 19 and ensuing pandemic and environmental change the book argues that beneath all the present social tumult lies a fundamental dilemma for human stability and progress namely how we can be estranged from what we refer to as humanity The book begins with an appraisal of populism and authoritarian nationalism and later explores whether in our human development we are bound for enhancement or extinction Interrogating these big ideas further the book identifies three central challenges that confront us as a society living on the planet living with the planet and living with one another on the planet These challenges prompt a re think of what it is to be human and social and hinging on these key themes the book thus concludes with consideration of a radical agenda for future social improvement Rather than peering through the conventional lenses offered by separate disciplines this book argues for interdisciplinary appreciation and recognition especially so if we are to address the dilemma at the center of its concern The Human Paradox will appeal to readers interested in the major conflicts of our times as well as students of subjects including sociology politics history and economics

Performing the Edible Kristin Hunt, 2026-02-13 At the intersection of performance studies and food studies this pioneering collection explores food as more than just a subject of study it s a medium of artistic expression communication and embodied knowledge Drawing from a decade of collaborative work through the American Society for Theatre Research working group 2014 2023 this volume brings together diverse voices examining how food shapes and reflects our understanding of identity culture and sustainability in an increasingly complex world The collection stands out for its innovative approach to thinking with food moving beyond traditional academic analysis to engage with food as an active participant in performance and meaning making Contributors explore how food practices inform our relationships with place community and environment while addressing urgent questions about global foodways and survival Through a combination of scholarly research and artistic exploration these essays reveal how food serves as both a lens for understanding contemporary challenges and a tool for imagining new possibilities in performance sustainability and cultural exchange This interdisciplinary work offers vital insights for scholars artists and practitioners interested in the intersection of performance food studies cultural theory and environmental sustainability providing fresh perspectives on how food based knowledge and practice can inform our response to global challenges
