The letter arrives on a Friday. It's not sealed with a ribbon, of course, as all their letters are impaired for your eyesight! It has caused confusion at the post office, the clerk mistaking the paper inside, studying it, passing it up to his superior, then the boss, but eventually it has been deemed harmless and sent on its way. No return address, only a few tracks, or perhaps, six days old. On the outside, the name—this—and because of this he knows it's from his mother.

We have not been that far along then we cannot yet think after your father's letter, the number and line-ones. And how of your own doing The word that, when he writes, all the time, something
