Researching Subtitling Processes Anke Radinger,2025-07-31 Subtitling is almost as old as the motion picture itself It is a very specific form of translation that goes well beyond the transferring of written texts given that the source text the film is a complex combination of spoken and written text together with dynamic images music and sounds But how does one read a film in order to translate it In this volume Anke Radinger investigates what happens in a subtitlers mind especially in various working environments An example of one of these conditions is the introduction of innovative assistive language tools such as AI powered speech to text into traditional subtitling workflows Using methods like eye tracking and keylogging Radinger reviews computer or rather AI assisted subtitling processes practices and workflows while concentrating on aspects such as effort and quality Her work is a valuable contribution to subtitling process research SPR a young and greatly under researched subfield of audiovisual translation

King Hu's Kung Fu Cinematic Art Ya-chen Chen, 2024-04-03. This scholarly compendium offers a comprehensive analysis of King Hu's transformative impact on Chinese martial arts cinema. It begins with a foundational examination of King Hu's directorial influence, setting the stage for an in-depth exploration of his filmography, including critical works like Dragon Inn and A Touch of Zen. The volume employs advanced theoretical frameworks, such as David Bordwell's film poetics, to dissect King Hu's pervasive influence across generations of filmmakers and the analysis of cultural translation and subtitling practices, further illuminating the global dissemination and reception of Hu's films. A critical focus is placed on King Hu's oeuvre, analyzing its adaptability and intertextual resonance within broader artistic milieus. The book also critiques Hu's representation of women in martial arts cinema, interrogating both progressive and problematic elements. Concluding sections emphasize Hu's mastery in marrying classical Chinese narrative techniques with visual storytelling, highlighting his enduring legacy in the martial arts genre and global cinematic landscape. This volume asserts King Hu as a pivotal cultural auteur whose work continues to shape cinematic expression and discourse, making it an essential resource for scholars in film studies and aficionados of wuxia cinema.
