New Images of Thought in the Study of Childhood Drawing Laura Trafi-Prats, Christopher M. Schulte, 2022-10-21 This book provides a revitalised account of the study of children's drawing by outlining a departure from existing approaches privileging developmentalist accounts and presenting drawing as a specialised human endeavour separated from other material entanglements constituting children's everyday experiences The book takes on current developments in the fields of early childhood arts and early childhood literacies to advocate for process oriented new materialist and decolonial approaches that re conceptualise the study of children's drawing It proposes a future oriented approach centred on thinking experimentally with a focus on nonrepresentational elements such as movement sensation intensity rhythm story and place which singularly assemble in drawing events Thus the book discusses drawing as a process of sense making that is not enclosed in the individualised body of the child and that unfolds corporeally in time and space It revises the relation of drawing with symbolisation by suggesting that the use of language and signs in drawing form in entanglement with matter and sensation in processes of creative speculation connected with the movement of thought Presenting a series of contributions by internationally recognised scholars and artists the book aims to create synergies between theory and practice that speak of everyday realities interconnecting children learning and sense making

Activating the Inanimate: Visual Vocabularies of Performance Practice Celia Morgan, Filipa Malva, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The dynamic exchange of perspectives that constituted the 2nd Global Conference of Performance Visual Aspects of Performance Practice demonstrated that the foundational concept of the project is a vibrant platform for sharing and extending ideas within all aspects of scenographic practice in performance This volume is a compilation of papers that formed the basic structure of that conference The first four chapters present a developing schema of visual languages within theatre From Beckett Ibsen Svoboda to Wilson they navigate the symbolic and visual prioritizing of postdramatic scenographic forms Part 2 reconsiders the predetermined divisions that deflate experiential encounters with the inanimate Dance puppetry and slapstick provide examples of interaction between performers and their environment Part 3 addresses various renderings of design processes exploring the role of drawing fabric and body in creating a narrative Part 4 negotiates the sensitive interface between public and performance while looking at the Burning Man Festival flash mobs and opera media casting The final chapters represent a global collective of process strategies that confront the production and methodologies of meaning They engage with cultural presumptions and subjectivities in post Cultural Revolution China Spanish flamenco American Indian post colonial resistances and the traditions of Australian Aboriginal artists      Sketchbook Explorations Shelley Rhodes,2024-11-14 A practical and inspirational guide to help embroiderers and textile artists make the most of sketchbooks to inform their creative work The artist s sketchbook offers an exciting platform to explore a host of mixed media techniques Using a combination of paper textiles found objects pencil ink and paint Shelley Rhodes shows how a sketchbook can act as an illustrated diary a visual catalogue of a journey or experience or as a starting point for more developed work Whether out on location or in the studio Rhodes explores every stage of the creative process from initial inspiration to overcoming the fear of a blank page manipulating paper and images and incorporating found objects to build a sketchbook that is both beautiful and inspiring Sketchbook Explorations is the ideal companion for everyone from the beginner to the more experienced artist looking for exciting techniques to expand their repertoire in mixed media The book explores Why work in sketchbooks The importance and joy of working in a sketchbook Ways of recording and investigating ideas that inspire Techniques in mixed media from found objects and layers to three dimensional sketching Creating on location Using electronic devices to develop ideas

Building Communities of Practice in Higher Education Camila Devis-Rozental,Susanne Rose Clarke,2024-05-23 Drawing from a diverse range of expert voices within the field this key work explores how communities of practice are an effective tool for supporting successful collaboration whilst also creating the foundations for lasting institutional change By examining communities of practice through a variety of critical lenses this book encourages readers to consider how strategies may be applied within their own institutions to support feelings of belonging encourage teamwork and inspire learning Supported by both practical case studies and current research contributors suggest strategies that readers can use to create their own effective communities of practice Chapters explore topics including Communities as a method of regeneration within universities Cultivation of knowledge through community collaboration Questions of power in transdisciplinary communities Mapping career pathways through communities of practice Bringing together theory and practice this is an essential resource for all involved in strategic planning organisational development and fostering a positive organisational culture within higher education      Rethinking the Crit Patrick Flynn,Maureen O'Connor,Mark Price,Miriam Dunn,2022-09-06 Assessment in architecture and creative arts schools has traditionally adopted a one size fits all approach by using the crit where students pin up their work make a presentation and receive verbal feedback in front of peers and academic staff In addition to increasing stress and inhibiting learning which may impact more depending on gender and ethnicity the adversarial structure of the crit reinforces power imbalances and thereby ultimately contributes to the reproduction of dominant cultural paradigms This book critically examines the pedagogical theory underlying this approach discusses recent critiques of this approach and the reality of the crit is examined through analysis of practice The book explores the challenges for education and describes how changes to feedback in education can shape the future of architecture and the creative arts
