The Media Creates Us in Its Image and Other Essays on Technology and Culture Richard Stivers,2020-03-31 The Media Creates Us in Its Image and Other Essays on Technology and Culture proposes that modern technology seriously influences every aspect of culture and personality Technology shapes our beliefs and values and even how we think of ourselves It affects religion morality education language communication and sexual identity Every institution every organization is brought under its purview This book attempts to awaken the reader to the destructive side of modern technology that exists side by side with its constructive side What modern technology is destroying however is the very meaning of being human The essay The Media Creates Us in Its Image makes this case most dramatically The book asks the reader the following question Is what you have gained from the use of modern technology more important than what you have lost How do we once again bring technology under our control in the face of its inexorable progress Socratic Seminars in High School Victor Moeller,Marc Moeller,2014-10-10 Teach students how to engage in thoughtful discussions about a text Socratic seminars are highly effective at helping students read closely and think critically about what they ve read They also teach students how to participate in authentic discussions This practical book from bestselling authors Victor and Marc Moeller is your go to guide for getting started It will help teachers who are new at Socratic seminars and provide fresh ideas to teachers who are experienced with the format Part I provides guidelines on how to prepare students for discussion and how to form good discussion questions Part II includes ready to use lesson plans organized by compelling themes to engage students The lesson plans include unabridged literary and nonfiction reading selections from classic and contemporary authors as well as suggested film pairings Authors featured in this book include C S Lewis William Faulkner Abraham Lincoln Mike Royko Isaac Asimov Aldous Huxley Andrew Postman John Updike Gina Berriault Gene Siskel Judith Guest President Obama Anton Chekhov Robert Frost John Cheever And more On TESOL '84, a Brave New World for TESOL Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages. Convention,1985 Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,1962 Vols for 1921 1969 include annual bibliography called 1921 1955 American bibliography 1956 1963 Annual bibliography 1964 1968 MLA international bibliography Ethical, Legal and Social Challenges to a Brave New World George Patrick Smith,1982 Private Law, Digital Assets, and Infrastructure P.T. Babie,Mark Giancaspro,2026-01-01 This book addresses perhaps the most pervasive topical and unsettled collection of themes and questions in the contemporary legal world subsisting in private law and emergent technologies such as digital assets blockchain and cryptocurrency Private law frameworks across the globe are struggling to keep pace with rapid technological developments that typify the Fourth Industrial Revolution This sluggishness is triggering a swathe of important but unanswered practical and theoretical legal questions These questions concern critical matters of legality practicality utility appropriate regulation and the underlying theoretical basis for state intervention This book uniquely combines a variety of themes which have not been the subject of significant writing and which are sure to inform live discourse and regulatory efforts in the space of digital assets and infrastructure blockchain cryptocurrency and related emerging technologies Private law currently finds itself at a crossroads and governments and courts are frantically searching for guidance as to how to approach the themes and questions addressed in this book Legal practitioners scholars and students of the law are equally perplexed as to private law's current and future directions in this space The book therefore offers essential perspectives that will appeal to legislators regulators judges lawyers scholars and students alike

The Spinal Cord Injury Handbook Richard C. Senelick, Karla Dougherty, 1998 What makes spinal cord injury so traumatic is the fact that while the body is immobile the brain is intact You know what is going on You know the full extent of the injury But because you can think because you are still the same person you can learn how to return to your life or begin anew Education becomes your lifeline This important source book will guide you through the sometimes overwhelming maze of getting back It addresses your fears concerns and your questions with authority and compassion In simple easy to understand terms you'll learn about the six major arenas you need to understand to recognize for optimum health and rehabilitation success You'll learn the nuts and bolts of spinal cord injury rehabilitation from specific exercises to finding the best wheelchair for you and much more A resource you will refer to over and over again this handbook will become an invaluable tool for your rehabilitation your care and the rest of your life

The Individual and Utopia Clint Jones, Cameron Ellis, 2016-03-09 Central to the idea of a perfect society is the idea that communities must be strong and bound together with shared ideologies However while this may be true rarely are the individuals that comprise a community given primacy of place as central to a strong communal theory This volume moves away from the dominant current macro level theorising on the subject of identity and its relationship to and with globalising trends focusing instead on the individual's relationship with utopia so as to offer new interpretive approaches for engaging with and examining utopian individuality Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing together work from around the world The Individual and Utopia enquires after the nature of the utopian as citizen demonstrating the inherent value of making the individual central to utopian theorizing and highlighting the methodologies necessary for examining the utopian individual The various approaches employed reveal what it is to be an individual yoked by the idea of citizenship and challenge the ways that we have traditionally been taught to think of the individual as citizen As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in social theory philosophy literature cultural studies architecture and feminist thought whose work intersects with political thought utopian theorizing or the study of humanity or human nature
