How to Break Bad Habits Haitham Al Fiqi,2023-11-11 There are hundreds of bad habits and hundreds of ways to break them if you need help there are books support groups and counselors to help you Mostly you can take a common sense approach and get the job done If bragging is one of your bad habits you could either be insecure or overly proud It usually makes the other person feel bad or they resent you You can get a handle on this bad habit if you stop for a few seconds before you talk Give yourself time to think about others and how this will sound to them Think about whether you are telling it to them or to yourself Another one of these bad habits is name dropping Again you may be insecure Most people will not take it in a friendly way Try to tell your same stories but without the names to stop yourself from doing this You might say My friend Brad instead of my friend Brad Pitt or something like that Cursing is one of those bad habits that can start at an early age You may curse so much that you are unaware that you are doing it much of the time The first thing to do is to pay attention Whenever you say inappropriate words put money in a jar Even if it is your coffee money put it in there Also you might want to think about anger management classes if your cursing is done in a hostile way If you have the bad habit of chewing with your mouth open there may be a physical cause It is disgusting at the dinner table and might make you look bad at a dinner meeting Perhaps all you need is a nasal decongestant Maybe if you can breathe through your nose you will close your mouth You may be a whiner This is one of those bad habits that annoy people from the time you are a child until you are old or until you quit it It comes out in the sound of your voice and the expression on your face However it is rooted in a negative doom and gloom attitude Look on the positive side of things and you will find yourself whining less Buy This eBook Now
