Islamic Postcolonialism Hasan Majed,2015-09-18 Islamic postcolonialism is a theoretical perspective that combines two components which have up until now existed in a state of tension As a secular theory postcolonialism has notably failed to account for Muslim priorities it has for instance had severe problems critiquing the anti Islam polemics of The Satanic Verses as is evidenced by Edward Said s support for Rushdie in spite of his criticism of the stereotypical representation of Islam and Muslims in the West Islamic postcolonialism applies the anti colonial resistant methodology of postcolonialism from a Muslim perspective exploring the continuance of colonial discourse in part of the contemporary western writing about Islam and Muslims This book explores how Islam is depicted and Muslim identities are constructed in four representative works of contemporary British fiction Hanif Kureishi s The Black Album 1995 Monica Ali s Brick Lane 2003 Fadia Faqir s My Name is Salma 2007 and Leila Aboulela s Minaret 2005 Salman Rushdie s The Satanic Verses 1988 is also discussed in terms of its crucial role in fostering what some Muslims might consider polemical and stereotypical positions in writing about Islam

Brick Lane Monica Ali,Annette Grube,2004 Encyclopedia of London's East End Kevin A. Morrison,2023-03-06 The East End is an iconic area of London from the transient street art of Banksy and Pablo Delgado to the exhibitions of Doreen Fletcher and Gilbert and George Located east of the Tower of London and north of the River Thames it has experienced a number of developmental stages in its four hundred year history Originating as a series of scattered villages the area has been home to Europe s worst slums and served as an affluent nodal point of the British Empire Through its evolution the East End has been the birthplace of radical political and social movements and the social center for a variety of diasporic communities This reference work with its alphabetically organized cross referenced entries and its original and historical photography serves as a comprehensive guide to the social and cultural history of this global hub Epistolarity and World Literature, 1980-2010 Rachel Bower,2017-09-29 This book examines the striking resurgence of the literary letter at the end of the long twentieth century It explores how authors returned to epistolary conventions to create dialogue across national linguistic and cultural borders and repositions a range of contemporary and postcolonial authors never considered together before including Monica Ali John Berger Amitav Ghosh Michael Ondaatje and Alice Walker Through a series of situated readings the book shows how the return to epistolarity is underpinned by ideals relating to dialogue and human connection Several of the works use letters to present non anglophone material to the anglophone reader Others use letters to challenge policed borders the prison occupied territory the nation state Elsewhere letters are used to connect correspondents in different cultural and linguistic contexts Common to all of the works considered in this book is the appeal that they make to us as readers and the responsibility they place on us to respond to this address By taking the epistle as its starting point and pursuing Auerbach s speculative ideal of weltliteratur this book turns away from the dominant trend of distant reading in world literature and shows that it is in the close situated analysis of form and composition that the concept of world literature emerges most clearly This study seeks to re think the ways in which we read world literature and shows how the literary letter in old and new forms speaks powerfully again in this period
