Goodreads Choice Last 90 Days:

Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books Alison Baverstock, Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, 2020-01-16 Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books is a comprehensive resource that builds bridges between the traditional focus and methodologies of literary studies and the actualities of modern and contemporary literature including the realities of professional writing the conventions and practicalities of the publishing world and its connections between literary publishing and other media Focusing on the relationship between modern literature and the publishing industry the volume enables students and academics to extend the text based framework of modules on contemporary writing into detailed expositions of the culture and industry which bring these texts into existence it brings economic considerations into line alongside creative issues and examines how employing marketing strategies are utilized to promote and sell books Sections cover The standard university course specifications of contemporary writing offering an extensive picture of the social economic and cultural contexts of these literary genres The impact and status of non literary writing and how this compares with certain literary genres as an index to contemporary culture and a reflection of the state of the publishing industry The practicalities and conventions of the publishing industry Contextual aspects of literary culture and the book industry visiting the broader spheres of publishing promotion bookselling and literary culture Carefully linked chapters allow readers to tie key elements of the publishing industry to the particular demands and features of contemporary literary genres and writing offering a detailed guide to the ways in which the three core areas of culture economics and pragmatics intersect in the world of publishing Further to being a valuable resource for those studying English or Creative Writing the volume is a key text for degrees in which Publishing is a component and is relevant to those aspects of Media Studies that look at interactions between the media and literature publishing

The Trumping of America Pamela Hines, 2018-08 Trump alone is not to blame How does it reflect on North American societal values when wealth trumps humanity selfish individualism trumps compassion the need to be entertained and to win trumps the truth and racism and misogyny are rewarded with the most powerful position in the world The political rise of Donald Trump from the cutthroat Republican primary process to his move to the White House has ushered in a new age of politics in the United States This is a comprehensive analysis of the events surrounding the 2016 presidential election and the unprecedented first year of Donald Trump s presidency Pamela Hines highlights the growing distortion of American democracy which threatens political systems around the world As a Canadian living just across the border Hines provides a unique perspective on the international impact of the election explores the roles of religion racism nationalism and gender bias and critiques the media and its reckless coverage of Trump s ascension The Trump presidency is a wake up call to citizens of the free world Democracy is at risk yet power remains in the hands of the people This assault on democracy can be curtailed only if voters make informed decisions and understand the consequences of their choices while they still have the right to choose
