Activist Retail Investors and the Future of Financial Markets Usman W. Chohan, Sven Van Kerckhoven, 2023-04-17 Contemporary financial markets have been characterized by sociocultural phenomena such as meme stocks the Gamestop short squeeze and You Only Live Once YOLO trading These are movements led by small scale retail investors banding together to participate forcefully in financial markets through decentralized but coordinated actions This book deploys many different subdisciplines to explore the recent power grabbing of retail investors and the online environment that enables them to join the ranks of major financial players and participate in contemporary capitalism It offers multiple perspectives on the genesis role motivations power and future prospects of retail investors as a force in contemporary financial markets Drawing upon the insights of authors hailing from many different countries the book frames YOLO capitalism through numerous angles that help to explain the context and the importance of activist retail investors in modern financial markets and thereby explore the possibilities of a transformed financial future with much wider small scale participation The book assesses the potential of online and other communities in enabling global coordination in impacting or even driving financial and crypto markets and the challenges that come with it and weighs the competing narratives both positive and negative regarding YOLO capitalism It strikes a balanced assessment of their legal cultural behavioural economic and political roles in modern finance This book will be of interest to a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary audience of scholars in financial markets financial regulation political economy public administration macroeconomics corporate governance and the philosophy and the sociology of finance The ^AAI Mirror Shannon Vallor, 2024-05-06 For many AI technology inspires hope for the future the promise of shared human flourishing and collective liberation from drudgery that defines the good life but always seems to elude our species Yet today s AI technology is forged from human generated data into immensely powerful but flawed mirrors that endlessly reflect the same errors biases and failures of wisdom we are striving to escape To open new futures for ourselves with these tools is as misguided as gazing into a mirror while trying to climb an uncharted mountain At this crucial juncture for humanity and our planet we need something new from AI and more importantly from ourselves We need to find new hope not to surrender our greatest moral and intellectual ambitions to machines that have none but to renew those ambitions collectively for ourselves Shannon Vallor makes a wide ranging prophetic and philosophical case for what AI could be and what we can be with it She calls us to reclaim our human potential for moral and intellectual growth rather than losing sight of our shared humanity as we gaze dully into our AI mirrors Contemporary Business Louis E. Boone, David L. Kurtz, Daniel Pfaltzgraf, 2024-09-18 Student friendly engaging and accessible Contemporary Business 20e equips students with the skills to assess and solve today s global business challenges and succeed in a fast paced environment Designed to drive interest in business our newest edition offers a comprehensive approach to the material including a variety of resources to support today s students Its modern approach wealth of videos relevant and up to date content and career readiness resources keep your course current and engaging Artificial Intelligence Research and Development Karina Gibert, Enric Plaza, 2018-10-15 It is almost impossible today to find an economic sector or aspect of society which does not involve AI techniques in some way This pervasive technology has become indispensable in a multitude of ways from supporting decision making to managing digital devices such as smart sensors mechanical arms or artificial eyes The ability of AI to emulate intelligence in the resolution of challenging problems has placed it at the centre of problem solving in all areas of our society This book presents contributions from CCIA 2018 the 21st International Conference of the Catalan Association for Artificial Intelligence which took place in Alt Empord Catalonia Spain on 8-10th October 2018 The book aims to provide a picture of what is being achieved and what is under development in AI today As such its contents represent the diversity of approaches and applications currently being researched but it also presents invited contributions which deal with some of the challenges that will have to be faced in the decade to come The contributions included in this book are organized under the following headings logic satisfiability and fuzzy sets classifiers networks and machine learning data science recommender systems and case based reasoning natural language and sound processing cognitive systems and agents and computer vision and robotics The book also covers a number of current AI challenges and new trends like big data spatial problem solving ethics and AI and how blockchain impacts AI Providing an up to the minute overview of current AI technology and research this book will be of value to all those with an interest in the subject Social Innovation and Sustainability Transition Geoff Desa, Xiangping Jia, 2022-11-09 This book uses a historical and modern lens to reimagine the role that Extension could potentially play in catalyzing reciprocal co learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies The establishment of statewide extension systems was once seen as a way to ensure that Land Grant Universities would be accessible and responsive to all of a state's residents Extension systems continue to offer a front door to a major public university in almost every county of the United States but they tend to be viewed primarily as a way to translate science or distribute information from the university to the public This book argues for the importance of Extension and shows that we are conceiving of this system too narrowly Only by retelling the stories of the Extension and getting people to see themselves as part of the story can we imagine a different future in which state universities and land grant colleges engage more authentically and equitably in two way relationships with their local constituents in catalyzing reciprocal co learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies Chapter Palatable disruption the politics of plant milk chapter Feeding the melting pot inclusive strategies for the multi ethnic city chapter A carrot isn't a carrot isn't a carrot tracing value in alternative practices of food exchange chapter Virtualizing the good life reworking narratives of agrarianism and the rural idyll in a computer game and chapter Workable utopias for social change through inclusion and empowerment Community supported agriculture CSA in Wales as social innovation are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license via link springer
