Living with Algorithms Ignacio Siles, 2023-04-25 A nuanced account from a user perspective of what it's like to live in a datafied world. We live in a media saturated society that increasingly transforms our experiences, relations, and identities into data others can analyze and monetize. Algorithms are key to this process, surveilling our most mundane practices and to many their control over our lives seems absolute. In Living with Algorithms, Ignacio Siles critically challenges this view by surveying user dynamics in the global south across three algorithmic platforms: Netflix, Spotify, and TikTok, and finds surprisingly a more balanced relationship. Drawing on a wealth of empirical evidence that privileges the user over the corporate, Siles examines the personal relationships that have formed between users and algorithms as Latin Americans have integrated these systems into the structures of everyday life: enacted them, ritually participated in public with and through them, and thwarted them. Sometimes users follow algorithms, Siles finds, and sometimes users resist them. At times users do both. Agency lies in the navigation of the spaces in between. By analyzing what we do with algorithms rather than what algorithms do to us, Living with Algorithms clarifies the debate over the future of datafication and whether we have a say in its development. Concentrating on an understudied region of the global south, the book provides a new perspective on the commonalities and differences among users within a global ecology of technologies.

The Gutenberg Parenthesis Jeff Jarvis, 2023-06-01 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE PROSE AWARDS MEDIA AND CULTURAL STUDIES FINALIST 2024. The Gutenberg Parenthesis traces the epoch of print from its fateful beginnings to our digital present and draws out lessons for the age to come. The age of print is a grand exception in history. For five centuries it fostered what some call print culture: a worldview shaped by the completeness, permanence, and authority of the printed word. As a technology, print at its birth was as disruptive as the digital migration of today. Now, as the internet ushers us past print culture, journalist Jeff Jarvis offers important lessons from the era we leave behind. To understand our transition out of the Gutenberg Age, Jarvis first examines the transition into it. Tracking Western industrialized print to its origins, he explores its invention, spread, and evolution, as well as the bureaucracy and censorship that followed. He also reveals how print gave rise to the idea of the mass: mass media, mass market, mass culture, mass politics, and so on, that came to dominate the public sphere. What can we glean from the captivating, profound, and challenging history of our devotion to print? Could it be that we are returning to a time before mass media, to a society built on conversation, and that we are relearning how to hold that conversation with ourselves? Brimming with broader implications for today's debates over communication, authorship, and ownership, Jarvis' exploration of print on a grand scale is also a complex, compelling history of technology and power.

Global Meets Digital Vinod Jain, 2023-06-02 The world today is at the intersection of two megatrends: Globalization and Digitalization, a business revolution unfolding in real time. Global Meets Digital captures the many nuances of this revolution, succinctly including its impact on our lives and business. An immediate implication of this revolution is that the economic principles that underpinned business and strategy for hundreds of years such as diminishing returns to scale and resource scarcity are no longer valid for a large and growing number of products and services The book will challenge you to think differently not just about digital products but also about physical products In the global digital world products are of three kinds physical digital and smart machines products that are both physical and digital and connected to the internet a distinction missed by most books on strategy and global business The economics of each kind of products is distinct from that of the others which has strategic implications for all kinds of businesses implications such as how to compete and how to create and capture value With several mini case studies and over 100 company examples the book covers themes and cutting edge issues like the paradox of globalization digital disruption disruptive business models exponential technologies Internet of Things competition in digital markets winner take all market dynamics Industry 4.0 how to innovate strategizing for the New Normal and value creation and value capture in both B2C and B2B contexts The book derives its underpinnings from the practice of global and digital business while theory remains in the background Intended specifically for an executive professional audience Global Meets Digital should also be of value to business students and professors learning to dip their toes into a digital world Vinod Jain is an expert in global and digital strategy award winning professor Fulbright Scholar and author of an MBA textbook Global Strategy He taught at the Rutgers Business School Newark and New Brunswick and the Robert H Smith School of Business University of Maryland College Park At Maryland he was also the Founding Director of the federally funded Center for International Business Education and Research and Academic Director of Smith School's Executive MBA program in China Since leaving Maryland he has taught in China Denmark Finland Poland and India as a visiting or term professor His opinion pieces have appeared in The Washington Post The Baltimore Sun Mensa Bulletin and Economic Times and Mint India's 1 and 2 business dailies among other media In the past he worked as a middle and senior level executive with American and British multinationals Vinod has a PhD in Strategy and International Business from the University of Maryland College Park MS in Management from UCLA and MS and BS Hons in Statistics from the Indian Statistical Institute Calcutta
