Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Hiring Manager's Name],

Upon learning about the job vacancy for the position of Mental Health Counselor at your esteemed hospital, I am keen to put forward my candidacy for the same. My academic background, experience, and role specific skills have prepared me well for exceeding your expectations from the role.

Listing some of my current job responsibility for your review:

- Examine the clients with symptoms of emotional and psychological distress.
- Develop personalized treatment plans for individual clients.
- Communicate with the clients and encourage them to share their thoughts.
- Observe and note the changes in the clients' behavioral pattern and thought process.
- Ensure the speedy recovery of the clients.
- Comply with the medical policies and rules.

I possess outstanding counseling and interpersonal skills to build a professional and positive rapport with the patients and their family members. In addition, I am proficient at diagnosing, implementing effective therapy plans, and organizing records.

I am grateful to you for going through my job application. In the accompanying resume, you would get an insight into my career path and achievements. I would be pleased to get a chance to discuss my skill set and KRAs with you in detail.

Best Regards,
[Your Name]
