Nba Preseason Early Access Deals Today:

A Soaring Season Aaron Bracy, 2025-03-01 The 2003 04 season was a dream for anyone in the orbit of Saint Joseph's basketball. Being a student on Hawk Hill at the time I lived every second of it and long assumed I knew everything imaginable about that team and that time. Aaron Bracy proved otherwise. A Soaring Season isn't only a joyous echo of those days but it's a deeply reported dive into all the coincidental circumstances required for ordinary people to go extraordinary places.

Brendan Quinn The Athletic In the 2003 04 season Saint Joseph's became the most unlikely and most incredible story in college basketball. The underdog Hawks captivated the entire city of Philadelphia and much of the nation with a unique guard-oriented style and team-first mentality featuring players who were not wanted by power conferences. Big-time programs passed over star point guard Jameer Nelson because of his height but Nelson played an oversized, sensational game that dwarfed his 5 feet 11 inches height. Nelson's backcourt mate Delonte West was a lightly recruited prospect out of high school but transformed himself into an NBA first-round draft pick with a work ethic and competitive drive that never had been seen before or since on Hawk Hill. Outspoken head coach Phil Martelli overlooked for the only job he had ever wanted until he was nearly 41 years old surrounded Nelson and West with a perfect cast of complementary players. Individually, none of Nelson and West's teammates would be mentioned as an All-American candidate. Put all of the Hawks together, however, and you had a practically unstoppable force. Not only did the players accept their roles, they relished them. And each one's contribution from Nelson and West all the way down to former cheerleader and walk-on Robert Hartshorn was crucial to the entire team's success. The Hawks spurred on by a mascot who never stops flapping its wings and a never-quit school mantra "The Hawk Will Never Die" played their games in a gym that wasn't even as modern as many high schools. Not much about the Hawks' home felt big-time, not much that is, except their team. It was this low-budget, mom-and-pop men's basketball program that overcame seemingly insurmountable odds to complete a perfect regular season, rise to the unanimous No. 1 ranking in the country, and become the envy of the blue-bloods of the sport. St. Joe's provided hope then and today by reminding everyone that you don't have to be the biggest to beat the biggest or have the best to be the best.

Dream Mirin Fader, 2024-10-15 The life and legacy of pioneering international basketball superstar Hakeem Olajuwon, a two-time NBA champion whose Hall of Fame career forever changed the game both in the United States and around the globe, from the New York Times bestselling author of Giannis. Mirin Fader: It's now the norm for NBA and collegiate teams to have international players dotting their rosters. The Olympics are no longer a gimme for Team USA. Both via fans streaming from all over the globe and leagues starting in countries throughout the world, the international presence of the game of basketball is a force to be reckoned with. That all started with Hakeem, the Dream, Olajuwon. He was the first international player to win the MVP, which is hard to believe now considering the last time an American-born player won it was in 2018.
