Brandweek, 1993. The Reggie Warford Story Scott Brown, 2024-10-29. In 1972 Reggie Warford was a sinewy lightning fast sharp shooting leftie who was in high demand by such renowned coaches as Bobby Knight at Indiana and Digger Phelps at Notre Dame. When the prolific player was signed by Joe B Hall at the University of Kentucky he would ultimately become an inspirational scoring force on the team and the first Black basketball player to graduate from the university instrumental in helping to break the color barriers for generations of students who followed. Scott Brown tells the remarkable story of this trailblazing player and the barriers he broke at Kentucky. Despite a heart condition and health issues that plagued him and eventually claimed his life his body and spirit exuded a commitment to the game he loved basketball. From growing up during the Civil Rights era relating his courage in remaining seated during the singing of My Old Kentucky Home a protest that led to the eventual rewrite of the lyrics recollections of his seminal games including the contest against Indiana during which Bobby Knight hit Joe B Hall and the Final Four match against UCLA this is a wide ranging look at Warford's life and career. The sports legend speaks honestly regarding his college coaching career that was torpedoed by agendas and dubious claims his life experiences with Muhammad Ali Larry Bird and the Harlem Globetrotters to working with youth at a juvenile detention center and winning a libel suit before the US Supreme Court. Throughout the highs and lows of his life Warford's mantra it was all worth it exudes hope optimism and an unwavering determination.
