Hilty, 2006 It is both a training manual and a guide for academicians in the real world packed with practical information that every academic psychiatrist can use right away BOOK JACKET The Biopsychosocial Approach to the Patient Chase Patterson Kimball, 1981 A Method of Psychiatry Stanley E. Greben, 1980 Abstracts on Rural Development in the Tropics, 1986 Theory and Practice with Adolescents Fred R. McKenzie, 2008 For too long practitioners and students working with adolescents have been forced to consult a variety of sources to bring together theory and practice in a meaningful way Professor McKenzie draws on his extensive experience as both a practitioner and an academic to create a comprehensive book one that provides a strong theoretical base as well as practical techniques to effectively use theory in practice Assessment and Case Formulation in Cognitive Behavioural Therapy Alec Grant, 2008-04 An important contribution to the development of cognitive therapy that synthesizes the best of traditional cognitive therapy with important new developments emerging from a range of different areas Combining practical accessibility with theoretical sophistication this book will be invaluable reading for both beginning therapists and experienced clinicians Jeremy D Safran Ph D Professor and Director of Clinical Psychology New School for Social Research New York Like a powerful river with many tributaries this book somehow manages to weave influences from all kinds of diverse sources into an exciting coherent whole It is everything you'd want of a new CBT book for students and practitioners fresh practical accessible James Bennett Levy Oxford Cognitive Therapy Centre Assessment and Case Formulation in Cognitive Behavioural Therapy is a comprehensive guide to key areas of professional knowledge and skill The successful outcome of therapy depends on the therapist's ability to work collaboratively with clients to create rounded assessments and formulations as a solid basis for therapeutic work Drawing directly on their own clinical work the authors describe how assessment and formulation should evolve throughout the process The case examples chosen include helping individuals with axis I and II problems such as psychosis depression borderline personality disorder and family case formulation The authors also discuss the importance of the therapist taking into account their own beliefs and emotions in formulating each case and present suggested self practice self reflection trajectories to support continuous professional development in this area Alec Grant is Principal Lecturer and Course Leader MSc in Cognitive Psychotherapy at INAM University of Brighton Michael Townend is Reader in Cognitive Behavioural Psychotherapy and Programme Leader for the MSc in Cognitive Behavioural Psychotherapy and Postgraduate Certificate in Clinical Supervision University of Derby Jem Mills is Managing Director Aurora CBT Ltd and also Cognitive Psychotherapist in Private Practice Adrian Cockx is Community Psychiatric Nurse and MSc in Cognitive Psychotherapy student at University of Brighton

Canadian Journal of Psychiatry ,2003 The American Journal of Psychiatry ,2002-04 The Biopsychosocial Formulation Manual William H. Campbell,Robert M. Rohrbaugh,2013-08-21 Based on George Engel s model The Biopsychosocial Formulation Manual presents ways to help psychiatry residents and students effectively gather and organize patient data to arrive at a complete mental health history in a limited timeframe While most current models only take one factor into account Campbell and Rohrbaugh emphasize and analyze three essential components biological social and psychological The process of identifying pertinent data for each component of the biopsychosocial formulation is explicated in detail A separate section outlines how to use the biopsychosocial formulation to generate treatment recommendations This volume includes a complete package for practicing the biopsychosocial method this easy to use guide includes a data record sheet and downloadable resources to facilitate organization and assessment appealing to both the psychiatric professional and the trainee

Competency in Combining Pharmacotherapy and Psychotherapy Michelle B. Riba,Richard Balon,2005 This essential work provides the ideal text for psychiatry residents who need to develop and demonstrate competency in providing psychotherapy and pharmacotherapy in both integrated and split approaches a competency required by the Residency Review Committee in Psychiatry Clinically and developmentally oriented Competency in Combining Pharmacotherapy and Psychotherapy Integrated and Split Treatment focuses on competencies in adult psychiatry in the outpatient setting The authors detail guidelines for assessing residents competency to provide both integrated treatment delivered by one professional and split treatment delivered in collaboration by two or more professionals They present these guidelines in two main standalone sections which can and should be read separately Both sections deal with similar problems and thus contain similar information such as selection of medication and psychotherapy evaluation and opening sequencing and maintenance and termination of integrated and split treatments Today the combination of pharmacotherapy and psychotherapy is the most widely used treatment modality for a broad range of psychiatric disorders Many clinicians believe that it is also far more efficacious and beneficial than either modality used alone This volume ably addresses some of the more complicated aspects of combining treatments such as how patient presentation affects pharmacotherapy and psychotherapy the timing and staging of combined treatment which therapies should be used in combination with pharmacotherapy and which professionals should be included in split treatment This eminently practical volume will be welcomed by residents and training directors alike as an integral part of all psychiatric residency training programs and will also be useful to nurse practitioners physician assistants social workers and psychologists
