A Scrap Of Time And Other Stories:

A Scrap of Time and Other Stories Ida Fink, 1995 Named a New York Times Notable Book Winner of the PEN Book of the Month Club Translation Prize Winner of the Anne Frank Prize These shattering stories describe the lives of ordinary people as they are compelled to do the unimaginable a couple who must decide what to do with their five year old daughter as the Gestapo come to march them out of town a wife whose safety depends on her acquiescence in her husband's love affair a girl who must pay a grim price for an Aryan identity card A Scrap of Time Ida Fink, 1990-05-01 My Mother's Voice Adrienne Kertzer, 2001-12-11 How do children's books represent the Holocaust How do such books negotiate the tension between the desire to protect children and the commitment to tell children the truth about the world If Holocaust representations in children's books respect the narrative conventions of hope and happy endings how do they differ if at all from popular representations intended for adult audiences And where does innocence lie if the children's fable of Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful is marketed for adults and far more troubling survivor memoirs such as Anita Lobel's No Pretty Pictures A Child of War are marketed for children How should Holocaust Studies integrate discourse about children's literature into its discussions In approaching these and other questions Kertzer uses the lens of children's literature to problematize the ways in which various adult discourses represent the Holocaust and continually challenges the conventional belief that children's literature is the place for easy answers and optimistic lessons Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Jiří Holý, Agata Firlej, Hana Nichtburgerová, 2021-06-21 The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018 An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades The publication is the result of long term scholarly cooperation of specialists from four countries and several dozen academic centres Father Goriot, Ursule Mirouët, and other stories Honoré de Balzac, 1899 What Remains and Other Stories Christa Wolf, 1995-12 What Remains collects Christa Wolf's short fiction from early work in the sixties to the widely debated title story first published in Germany in 1990 Addressing a wide range of topics from sexual politics to the nature of memory these powerful and often very personal stories offer a fascinating introduction to Wolf's work

What Remains and Other Stories is clear and farsighted. The eight heartfelt stories in the book show why she has been respected as a serious author since her 1968 novel The Quest for Christa T. Wolf uses her own experiences and observations to create universal themes about the controls upon human freedom. Herbert Mitgang, New York Times. Christa Wolf has set herself nothing less than the task of exploring what it is to be a conscious human being alive in a moment of history. Mary Gordon, New York Times Book Review. The simultaneous publication of these two volumes offers readers here a generous sampling of the short fiction, speeches and essays that Wolf has produced over the last three decades. Mark Harman, Boston Globe. Father Goriot, and other stories Honoré de Balzac, 1901 The Time Machine and Other Stories H. G.

Wells, 2016-09-14 This book is a collection of eight short stories written by H. G. Wells. The Short Stories of H. G. Wells constitutes a must have for lovers of the short story form and is not to be missed by fans of Wells' fantastic work. Herbert George Wells, 1866-1946 was a prolific English writer who wrote in a variety of genres including the novel, politics, history and social commentary. Today he is perhaps best remembered for his contributions to the science fiction genre thanks to such novels as The Time Machine (1895), The Invisible Man (1897) and The War of the Worlds (1898). The Father of Science Fiction was also a staunch socialist and his later works are increasingly political and didactic. The stories include The Time Machine, The Empire of the Ants, A Vision of Judgement, The Land Ironclads, The Beautiful Suit, The Door in the Wall, The Pearl of Love and The Country of the Blind. Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive. We are republishing this book now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author. The thirteen ; Father Goriot and other stories Honoré de Balzac, 1901 The time machine.

The wonderful visit and other stories Herbert George Wells, 1924 The Spirit that Moves Us Laura R. Petovello, Lorry Stillman, Rachel Quenk, Holocaust Human Rights Center of Maine, 1994 For high school students who can be both impassioned and impressionable, the study of the Holocaust encourages discussion about prejudice and justice, shame and dignity, hopelessness and faith, and engages them in debate about the moral and ethical behavior of humankind. Introducing students to the personal narrative, fiction and poetry allows them to hear a narrative voice recount not only the facts of this historical time but also helps them understand the emotions surrounding the events of the Holocaust. The chapters on music and art act as supplemental material for lessons on the literature. By sharing their ideas, debating the issues and researching the historical facts, students learn to find their true and honest voices and to listen to the voices around them. This resource guide's lesson plans and suggestions for writing and research projects are designed to reach all levels of academic study. Featured stories and books include The Last of the Just, The Quay, A Scrap of Time, Stones from the River, Seed of Sarah, Night This Way, for the Gas Ladies and Gentlemen, If Not Now, When The Shawl and Maus. All chapters have a brief plot summary of the piece of literature and include analysis of symbol, imagery, language and style, and their roles in developing a historical understanding of the Holocaust years. Additional chapters explore the art and music of the Holocaust. The guide contains a
