Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self-Improvement Giuliana Ferri, 2026-04-30 Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self Improvement utilises feminist critical discourse analysis to examine the language and narratives within selfhelp literature targeted at women Giuliana Ferri critically explores the discourse of self improvement focusing on how neoliberal values of empowerment and individual fulfilment have been co opted by elite feminism as a technology of the self She unpacks how this discourse constructs an idealised image of the empowered woman one who is portrayed as capable of overcoming patriarchy through the affirmation of innate strength and resilience Drawing on Marxist feminism and feminist social reproduction theory the book highlights how neoliberal feminism markets women as entrepreneurs badass feminists and successful working mothers all while obscuring the realities of increasing work precarization and flexibilisation in post industrial societies Through its feminist critical discourse analysis the book reveals how these seemingly empowering narratives shift the responsibility for systemic change onto individuals rather than positioning feminism as a collective anti capitalist movement for liberation By integrating applied linguistics with Marxist feminism and social reproduction theory this text provides a unique interdisciplinary perspective making it a key reading for scholars and students of language gender and economic systems

Penny Dreadful and Adaptation Julie Grossman, Will Scheibel, 2023-01-30 This edited collection is the first book length critical study of the Showtime Sky Atlantic television series Penny Dreadful 2014 2016 which also includes an analysis of Showtime s 2020 spin off City of Angels Chapters examine the status of the series as a work of twenty first century cable television contemporary Gothic horror and intermedial adaptation spanning sources as diverse as eighteenth and nineteenth century British fiction and poetry American dime novels theatrical performance Hollywood movies and fan practices Featuring iconic monsters such as Dr Frankenstein and his Creature the bride of Frankenstein Dracula the werewolf Dorian Gray and Dr Jekyll Penny Dreadful is a mash up of familiar texts and new Gothic figures such as spiritualist

Vanessa Ives played by the magnetic Eva Green As a recent example of adapting multiple sources in different media Penny Dreadful has as much to say about the Romantic and Victorian eras as it does about our present day fascination with screen monsters Hear the authors talk about the collection here <https://nrftsjournal.org/monsters-all-are-we-not-an-interview-with-julie-grossman-and-will-scheibel/>

Understanding Korean Webtoon Culture Dal Yong Jin, 2023-11-20 Webtoons a form of comic that are typically published digitally in chapter form are the latest manifestation of the Korean Wave of popular culture that has increasingly caught on across the globe especially among youth Originally distributed via the Internet they are now increasingly distributed through smartphones to ravenous readers in Korea and around the world The rise of webtoons has fundamentally altered the Korean cultural market due to the growth of transmedia storytelling the flow of a story from the original text to various other media platforms such as films television and digital games and the convergence of cultural content and digital technologies Fans can enjoy this content anytime and anywhere either purely as webtoons or as webtoon based big screen culture Understanding Korean Webtoon Culture analyzes webtoons through the lens of emerging digital cultures and discusses relevant cultural perspectives by combining two different yet connected approaches political economy and cultural studies The book demonstrates the dynamics between structural forces and textual engagement in global media flows and it illuminates snack culture and binge reading as two new forms of digital culture that webtoon platforms capitalize on to capture people s shifting media consumption

Transmedia Selves James Dalby,Matthew Freeman,2023-10-20 This book examines the mediated shift in the contemporary human condition focusing on the ways in which we synthesise with media content in daily life essentially transmediating ourselves into new forms and re creating ourselves across media Across an international roster of essays this book establishes a transdisciplinary theory for the transmedia self exploring how technological ubiquity and digital self determination combine with themes and disciplines such as celebrity culture fandom play politics and ultimately broader self conception and projection to inform the creation of transmedia identities in the twenty first century Specifically the book repositions transmediality as key to understanding the formation of identity in a post digital media culture and transmedia age where our lives are interlaced intermingled and narrativised across a range of media platforms and interfaces This book is ideal for scholars and students interested in transmedia storytelling cultural studies media studies sociology philosophy and politics
