Virtual Mental Health Care for Rural and Underserved Settings Donald M. Hilty, Matthew C. Mishkind, Tania S. Malik, Allison Crawford, 2022-10-26 This book focuses on the critical area of delivering mental health services in rural settings. It is designed as a practical guide to the technological provision of timely effective evidence based care helpful to the novice and the experienced practitioner alike. The benefits of this approach are Improved access to and improved quality of care. Technical support for providers and administrators. A means of providing missing specialty care. An ability to maximize scarce resources and significant flexibility for health service delivery. The book will cover how to adjust therapeutic skills to patients needs models of care and the particular technology used. It shows how rudimentary design of workflow can assist in integrating care and highlights the importance of allowing for cultural needs both rural geography and ethnic race. Administrative issues are also addressed e.g privacy reimbursement. The chapters are short and designed for maximum practicality including learning objectives cases and summaries emphasizing what to do and how to do it.

Reimbursement of Mental Health Services in Primary Care Settings Donna Mauch, 2011-04 In 2005-06 a study identified the barriers to and solutions for RMHS. This study was divided into two parts. The first part is a White Paper background report which identifies the barriers to successful provision of RMHS. The second part convened a Expert Forum who reviewed the White Paper and suggested actions to reduce those barriers. This Final Report incorporates their deliberations and addresses the following: Describes the purpose and rationale of the project. Outlines the project's tasks. Details findings from the White Paper. Summarizes the June 2006 Expert Forum discussion and Provides suggested actions to the Fed gov't on steps to overcome existing or perceived barriers to RMHS. Illustrations. This is a print on demand report.

Reimbursement of Mental Health Services in Primary Care Settings U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 2019-11-23 Implementing these practical and largely achievable suggestions will improve access to timely and targeted mental health services in primary care settings. Program and clinical experts agree that the early prevention and treatment of mental disorders will result in decreases in individual suffering family burden and medical costs. This project provided an important opportunity to review policy and service delivery change mechanisms aimed at improving the reimbursement of mental health services in primary care settings. By using knowledge from a variety of individuals and settings and combining empirical research with qualitative interviews and the Expert Forum proceedings this project identified areas where Federal agencies states provider organizations and commissioner associations can clarify collaborate educate and provide support to improve the reimbursement of and access to mental health services in primary care settings.

Highlights in psychology for clinical settings: The ascent of digital psychotherapy Moshe Bensimon, Keren Gueta, Eamonn Patrick Arble, Meyran Boniel-Nissim, Vera Békés, 2023-10-03 An Integrated Positive Psychology Approach Into Counseling in Different Settings Christos Pezirkianidis, Anastassios Stalikas, Panagiotis Parpottas, 2023-06-01 Health Promotion in the Universities and

Other Educational Settings Miguel Corbí, Antoni Aguilo, Carmen Gallardo Pino, Mario Del Líbano, Carlos Emanuel Rodriguez-Diaz, Hiram V. Arroyo Acevedo, 2025-09-17 The promotion of health in universities is of great importance as it allows for the encouragement of healthy lifestyles and the prevention of diseases among students, teaching staff, and administrative personnel. The university is a conducive environment for the promotion of healthy habits since firstly it is usually the moment when the students make decisions under their responsibility and secondly it is a place where academic sports and social activities take place so it is also an ideal moment to promote changes that can be transferred to society and the rest of the individual's life. Health promotion in universities can cover several areas such as healthy eating, physical exercise, prevention of addictions, emotional and social mental health among others. It can also involve the entire university community from students to administrative and teaching staff. In the case of students, it is essential as it is a period of change and habit formation and the fact that they will be the future decision makers of society.
