God Grants His First Divorce

Dawn Davis,2022-06-29 What does a technology dependent family need to bring on a canoe trip What happens when teachers work remotely while their students are in the school building Who is the real expert on cleaning out a cluttered basement Each comedy sketch in this collection takes a simple idea and plays it out to outlandish proportions A hands on audio course that teaches its students how to install a toilet while they're driving. A timeshare company that offers part ownership of a variety of cats with peculiar needs and personalities. Instructions for installing radiant floor heat that includes a large bottle of Scotch and a case of Kleenex on the list of items needed and takes 189 days to complete. Jump into the absurdity, ridiculousness, and hilarity of these stories and it will soon become clear why God grants his first divorce.

Analyzing Faculty Work and Rewards: Using Boyer's Four Domains of Scholarship John M. Braxton, 2006-05-19 All those involved in evaluating faculty work and the concomitant faculty rewards system will find this a useful volume. Known for their thoughtful scholarship on this topic, the chapter authors bring their diverse perspectives to bear on Boyer's four domains: the scholarship of discovery, the scholarship of application, the scholarship of integration, and the scholarship of teaching. Individual scholars engage in each of these scholarships as their professional roles, career stages, and research goals change over time. Understanding the unique characteristics of the four domains, as well as how work in one domain connects with and influences work in another, will give readers a map of the broad territory of scholarly activity and recognize the legitimacy of each different intellectual contribution.
