Smart Home Snapchat Today:

Blind Trust (The SNAP Agency Book #3) Natalie Walters, 2023-04-11 Lyla Fox knows she has a reputation at the SNAP Agency for impulsivity but when she receives a threatening letter from a man she helped put in prison she can't stop herself from going all in to find out why he's coming after her. Unfortunately she's going to need the help of the one person who questions her reckless choices more than anyone else. Explosives and weapons specialist Nicolas Garcia agrees to help Lyla in order to keep her safe but her recklessness continues to be a major concern especially when her investigation into a conspiracy puts a target on her back. Dealing with bombs is dangerous. Working with Lyla is proving to be just as treacherous to both the mission and his heart. Natalie Walters closes out her SNAP Agency series with a bang with this nail-biting story of a deadly government conspiracy, an unlikely couple, and an ending that will leave you breathless. Left to Our Own

Devices Margaret E. Morris, 2024-05-21 Unexpected ways that individuals adapt technology to reclaim what matters to them from working through conflict with smart lights to celebrating gender transition with selfies. We have been warned about the psychological perils of technology: distraction, difficulty empathizing, and loss of the ability or desire to carry on a conversation. But our devices and data are woven into our lives. We can't simply reject them. Instead, Margaret Morris argues we need to adapt technology creatively to our needs and values. In Left to Our Own Devices, Morris offers examples of individuals applying technologies in unexpected ways that go beyond those intended by developers and designers. Morris examines these kinds of personalized life hacks, chronicling the ways that people have adapted technology to strengthen social connection, enhance well-being, and affirm identity. Morris, a clinical psychologist and app creator, shows how people really use technology, drawing on interviews she has conducted as well as computer science and psychology research. She describes how a couple used smart lights to work through conflict, how a woman persuaded herself to eat healthier foods when her photographs of salads garnered likes on social media, how a trans woman celebrated her transition with selfies, and how through augmented reality a woman changed the way she saw her cancer and herself. These and the many other off-label adaptations described by Morris cast technology not just as a temptation that we struggle to resist but as a potential ally as we try to take care of ourselves and others. The stories Morris tells invite us to be more intentional and creative when left to our own devices. Woman's Home Companion, 1910 Snap Shots at Cookery Church of the Ascension (Buffalo, N.Y.), 1909 Ladies' Home Companion, 1928 Digital Media and Innovation Richard A.
