industry researchers working in a range of fields as well as professionals interested in industry innovations Competing with Disruptive Business Models in Traditional Industries. Conceptualisation of a Strategic Framework Nils Berkemeyer, 2016-05-06 Master's Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1.0 Cass Business School language English abstract An increasing number of journalistic articles and academic literature deal with the struggle of established companies to fend off the attacks by industry newcomers such as Airbnb Spotify Netflix Google and many others These companies enter traditional industries with innovative business models and compete in a manner which makes it challenging for incumbent firms to understand their novel competition and respond effectively This study introduces a typology of three stages of industry disruption that classify the newcomer's developmental stage and describe the incumbent's competitive position in terms of competition intensity and remaining time to respond It is demonstrated how incumbents may conduct their strategic reasoning along these stages to arrive at a strategic goal and evaluate possible counter measures Longpath Ari Wallach, 2022-08-16 An antidote to nearsightedness Ari Wallach won't just leave you planning months or years ahead he challenges you to look generations ahead Get ready to think and think again Adam Grant 1 New York Times bestselling author of Think Again and host of the TED podcast WorkLife A paradigm shifting manifesto for transforming your thinking from reactionary short termism to the long term widening your scope beyond today tomorrow and to even five hundred years from now to reclaim meaning in your life from futurist and host of the PBS series A Brief History of the Future Many of the problems we face today from climate change to work anxiety are the result of short term thinking We are constantly bombarded by notifications and Breaking News that are overwhelming our central nervous systems forcing us to react in the moment and ultimately disconnecting us from what truly matters But there is a solution Futurist Ari Wallach offers a radical new way forward called longpath a mantra and mindset to help us focus on the long view Drawing on history theology neuroscience evolutionary psychology and social technologies Longpath teaches us to Strengthen our ability to look ahead Relieve reactions to stressful events Increase capacity for cooperation Boost creativity Wallach challenges us to ask ourselves to what end what is my ultimate goal and how does my choice align with my values And even more provocatively Wallach challenges us to ask to what end for civilization at large Whether it's work marriage parenting or simply trying to be a good human on the planet framing decisions from a much larger scale creates a more fulfilling and sustainable life now and for future generations Words. Sounds. Images Amit Khanna, 2019-12-31 Ambitious and encyclopaedic in scope this is a first of its kind book that presents the history of media and entertainment in India from the times of the Indus Valley Civilization right up to the twenty first century The book starts with an examination of the origins looking at a wide array of aspects such as the state of entertainment during Harappan and Vedic times including details from the Natyashastra the early drama music and dance of Kalidasa the development of ragas musical instruments and early folk traditions the genesis of classical dance forms developments through the ages including in the Mughal period in the southern kingdoms in the north east and under the Marathas and the British Independence onwards the book takes a decade wise look at the evolution of newspapers cinema music television dance theatre and radio The author himself a film producer director and lyricist who has worked in the entertainment industry all his life brings his unique perspective to bear on the subject This pioneering work is a must read not just for the students and practitioners of the arts and media but also for their lay consumers Is Iggy Azalea's Use of African-American English Cultural Appropriation? Attitudes towards her "Crossing" on Social Media, 2022-08-09 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1 7 University of M nster language English abstract Iggy Azalea a white Australian hip hop artist uses African American Vernacular English when rapping Whether this act of crossing is cultural appropriation was debated on social media and in the news The question this paper aims to answer is if the wider audience on YouTube has a negative attitude towards Azalea s crossing Considering the extensive media coverage of which a substantial part was critical of Azalea s language use during performance the hypothesis is that the majority of the YouTube audience is negative towards this issue But before the data can be analysed there is essential information that requires to be provided This information will be given in the next part and it includes Iggy Azalea s biographical background as well as relevant terms and concepts namely African American English the hip hop nation and its language and crossing Moreover the study by Eberhardt and Freeman shall be presented in more detail Before moving on to the empirical part of this paper where comments below the music videos Work and Fancy are analysed there shall be a short excursion on language attitudes and how to research them Then having presented and analysed the results of the study the findings shall be discussed until finally some concluding remarks are made

The Power of Real Optimism Deepika Chopra,2026-03-10 Optimism isn t about pretending everything is fine It s about staying open and flexible especially when it s not In this fresh science backed debut professional psychologist and media expert Dr Deepika Chopra shows us how to build the kind of optimism that can actually withstand real life We ve been sold the idea that optimism is a mood a mindset or worse just an inherent trait But what if real optimism is something else entirely In The Power of Real Optimism Dr Deepika Chopra known as The Optimism Doctor offers a radically different definition optimism as a science a skill and a psychological muscle we can strengthen Drawing from over a decade immersed in the science of resilience emotional well being and cognitive psychology as well as her work with clients innovative workshops and hallmark practices think evidence based visualization narrative reframing her signature self worth work and even color therapy Dr Chopra offers a toolkit for navigating the chaos uncertainty and nuance of being human without losing yourself to it Grounded practical and poetic in all the right ways this book will challenge your relationship with hope rewire how you recover from hard things and invite you to stay soft without falling apart With her blend of intimate storytelling psychological insight and tangible tools including a 33 day Real Optimism Challenge Dr Chopra offers something far more enduring than a quick fix or fleeting affirmation She invites us into a deeper more resilient way of living one where we can stay curious in the face of fear open in the face of grief and grounded even as the world wobbles beneath us Because real optimism doesn't deny the dark it teaches us how to see in it

EIB-information ,2012 Business Statistics Sanjiv Jaggia,2024 Show me your playlist and I tell you who you are Kathrin Rochow,2012-11-28 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2010 in the subject Psychology Social Psychology grade 1.0 Uppsala University language English abstract In the age of social networking and music streaming playlists are a common tool for organizing sharing or exchanging music in the digital realm Most research however emphasizes mainly political legal and ethical constraints of music sharing practices yet neglects their social impact Thus this paper investigates the social psychological foundation of the playlist and analyses its functionality in establishing social relations and communication Following the theories of Cooley Mead Simmel and Solomon I conducted and analysed interviews with young Swedish men and women in which they talked about their experiences and attitudes towards playlists Moreover all participants compiled their own personal playlist based on certain personality traits which were aimed to be recognized by the others during the focus group discussion The analysis of the data yields the following conclusions The playlist is a social object facilitating new forms of communication The social nature of the playlist is based on the transformation from objective into subjective culture By internalizing new technologies such as the playlist objects gain social value thus mere musical content becomes a social form It is through sharing and exchanging musical compilations that the playlist as a social form serves as a vehicle or medium facilitating new forms of sociation and communication The communicative function of the playlist is due to its construction through emotions as uniquely subjective judgements based on the I as an emotional self feeling Thus musical compilations take part in the self construction process and can serve as a tool for the symbolic expression of the self Moreover the analysis points out that there are differences in how well certain parts of the self can be communicated by a playlist Emotional expressions of the self are translated into particular universal music patterns most successfully Furthermore the analysis shows that some people like to browse through the playlists of others and judge them thereupon which results in some type of musical voyeurism termed playlistism In conclusion I argue that the musical playlist is both socially implicated and socially implicating How do Fintech Startups and a Changing Consumer Behavior Reshape the Financial Services Industry? Viktor Kanzler, 2015-05-18 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 3 Frankfurt School of Finance Management language English abstract The purpose of this study is to illustrate how Fintech startups and other non financial institutions reshape the finance industry as they take advantage of recent technology trends and lifestyle shifts affecting customers expectations The thesis aims to show how the competitive landscape changes and to what extent digital attackers grab parts of the value chain The study also maps out the Fintech landscape highlights important growth trends and gives an overview of the services and products with which Fintech startups are currently edging into the market Moreover the study points out the specific drivers and barriers relevant to Fintech companies A further objective was to find out whether Fintech startups pose a serious threat to traditional providers and if so which generic approaches exist to deal with these attackers Apart from that the aim was to identify how peers address digitization as well as what strengths traditional banks can rely on Last but not least the study demonstrates what banks and other institutions can learn from Fintech startups and how the future of finance could develop and look like in 2020
