A Handbook On Forming Self Help Groups:

Preparing Farmer Groups to Engage Successfully With Markets: A Field Guide for Five Key Skill Sets Catholic Relief Services,2007-07 "EMPOWER WOMEN WITH SHG" A Print Media View Dr. Anamika Srivastava,2020-11-16 1 1

PROLOGUE Anne Bradstreet through literature was able to reflect the hardships of women and articulate them in a perspective of by the women and for women In her poetry The Prologue she is able to speak her mind freely while still concealing it Bradstreet's poetry is not a direct call for empowerment but yes it gives light to women for empowering themselves Today media is known as effective tools of development in urban and as well as rural areas but society has a challenge to find proper media to make it accessible for both urban and rural The administrators of Government have to find out the proper effective and accessible media to strengthen and implement the programs and policies for women Some other professionals such as non government organizations media institutions community organizations social groups and researchers must be expansion it of communication by using proper channels for empowering women At the end media need more to broadcast publish in newspaper and advertise the development programs Government should promote and provide training to workers of Asha Anganawadi and Self Help Groups so that the women can get promoted Microfinance Soumitra Sarkar,Samirendra Nath Dhar,2011 Microfinance is a useful tool for reducing poverty and building the capacity of the poor in management of sustainable self employment by way of providing financial services like credit saving housing consumption credit insurance cover etc This book takes a holistic view of the various aspects of the microfinance programmes as adopted under Swarnajayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojana SGSY in India with special reference to the state of West Bengal Critically examining how SGSY operates in relation to funding the programme bank linkage system training and capacity building of beneficiaries thrift credit and governance systems of SHGs marketing of SHG products role of bankers and NGOs and the perceptions of the beneficiaries It also analyses the impact of the SGSY programmes on the socio economic empowerment of SHG members GOVERNANCE AND POVERTY REDUCTION AMITA SINGH,KAPIL KAPOOR,RABINDRANATH BHATTACHARYYA,2008-12-04 Poverty reduction in South Asia is a precondition for sustaining any form of reforms in governance The new public management reforms which started in South Asia from Sri Lanka taking the initiative in 1977 78 have been a decisive break from the previously practised State driven protectionist system Investment in the region has been rising and even per capita income has shown some increase yet the state has not been able to lead these reforms appropriately and efficiently Thus poverty has not been reduced ordinary people continue to languish under government programmes and the socially excluded remain outside the mainstream decision making bodies Governance in South Asia faces the single most important challenge of poverty reduction which continues to blunt and disfigure capacity self esteem and service delivery system to the poor This book attempts to bring out microlevel studies from many regions in South Asia to address issues of entrepreneurship knowledge and professionalism As an initiator of the idea on developing a critique to the straightjacketed best practice research this book questions the standard practice in evaluating administrative reforms as not being the true base for knowledge Administrators need to balance capacity and control in every implementation programme Confining to the knowledge of best practices may conceal enormous amount of information from the less than best practices which may be necessary to sustain good initiatives of public managers This book highlights areas of active networking partnerships and collaborations amongst state and non state bodies NGOs and specialist Science and Technical Organizations The true nature of governance is explained and demonstrated through the processes which otherwise pass off undetected in macro understanding of governance
