Beyond Binaries and Polarization? Elke Winter,2025-06-30 This book explores what lies between the statuses of insider and outsider in immigrant nations It asks Who is conditionally included excluded in relation to whom and for what reasons What does this conditional inclusion exclusion entail in terms of citizenship material resources and sense of belonging How does it affect the cultural and economic well being of refugees migrants and the host society The focus is on Canada which is often described as the quintessential immigrant nation The chapters in this book provide new insights into several hotly contested issues the overlapping cultural and economic logics of nationalist inclusion exclusion the growing prevalence of temporary and two step migration regimes the importance of cities in managing multiculturalism the need to disaggregate minority groups and the intersections of race class and gender in narratives of nationhood By shifting the focus of research from us them binaries to the study of relational inclusion exclusion involving three or more actors or groups this book highlights the often overlooked conditionality and temporality of immigrant inclusion the messiness of policies aimed at ethnic diversity and the uneven distribution of attitudes among members of minority groups This book will be valuable for scholars students and policymakers in the fields of sociology political science migration studies and Canadian studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics and are accompanied with a new Foreword a comprehensive glossary and critical engagement questions Immigration, Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada, 2019-01-21 Canada s history since its birth as a nation one hundred and fifty years ago is one of immigration nation building and contested racial and ethnic relations In Immigration Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada Retrospects and Prospects scholars provide a wide ranging overview of this history with a core theme being one of enduring racial and ethnic conflict and inequality The volume is organized around four themes where in each theme selected racial and ethnic issues are examined critically Part 1 focuses on the history of Canadian immigration and nation building while Part 2 looks at situating contemporary Canada in terms of the debates in the literature on ethnicity and race Part 3 revisits specific racial and ethnic studies in Canada and finally in Part 4 a state of the art is provided on immigration and racial and ethnic studies while providing prospects for the future Contributors are Victor Armony David Este Augie Fleras Peter R Grant Shibao Guo Abdolmohammad Kazemipur Anne Marie Livingstone Adina Madularea Ayesha Mian Akram Nilum Panesar Yolande Pottie Sherman Paul Pritchard Howard Ramos Daniel W Robertson Vic Satzewich Morton Weinfeld Rima Wilkes Lori Wilkinson Elke Winter Nelson Wiseman Lloyd Wong and Henry Yu Canadian Citizenship
