

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary high costs of attendance you see posted on college websites. Lots of help is available to help pay through loans, scholarships, grants and work-study jobs by thousands of dollars. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these seven key steps.

1. GET READY TO APPLY

KNOW WHAT YOU WANT

Think about the amount of money you'll need to pay for college. Do you want to go to a public or private school? Will you need room and board? How much do you want to borrow? Do you want to work while in school? Do you have any special needs? Do you have any special talents or interests? Do you have any special needs? Do you have any special talents or interests?

FIND A FINANCIAL SAFETY NET

Look for ways to pay for college. Do you have any savings? Do you have any investments? Do you have any other sources of income? Do you have any other sources of income? Do you have any other sources of income? Do you have any other sources of income?

GET UP A BUDGET PLAN

Make a budget plan for college. How much do you need for tuition? How much do you need for room and board? How much do you need for books and supplies? How much do you need for transportation? How much do you need for other expenses?

2. APPLY FOR AID

COMPLETE THE FAFSA

Fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and send it to the schools you want to attend. The FAFSA is the first step in getting financial aid.

KNOW WHAT TO ASK FOR

When you apply for aid, you should also ask for a merit scholarship. Some schools offer merit scholarships based on your test scores and other achievements. You should also ask for a work-study job. Work-study jobs are part of your financial aid package and can help you pay for college.

TAKE THE COST OUT

Reduce the cost of college by looking for ways to save. Do you have any scholarships or grants? Do you have any work-study jobs? Do you have any other sources of income? Do you have any other sources of income? Do you have any other sources of income?

3. MAKE YOUR CHOICES

KNOW YOUR CHOICES

Compare the offers from the schools you've applied to. Look at the total cost of attendance, including tuition, room and board, books and supplies, and transportation. Look at the financial aid package offered by each school. Look at the location of the school and the quality of the education.

LOOK BEYOND THE AID

Don't just look at the amount of aid you'll receive. You should also look at the quality of the education, the location of the school, and the career opportunities available. You should also look at the cost of living in the area and the quality of the food and other services.

KNOW HOW TO SAY NO

It's okay to say no to a school if it doesn't meet your needs. You should only accept an offer if you are sure you can afford it and that it is the best choice for you. You should also make sure you understand all the terms and conditions of the aid package.
