letters to show they've learned more about the job. Doing so can give you an edge against the competition. Failing to sell yourself. If you undersell your skills and qualifications, you won't make an impression on the reader. Don't just talk about your accomplishments; give concrete examples. Regurgitating the resume. Cover letters weren't meant as a tool to repeat everything that's in your resume. It's a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you're applying for. Include any training, classes, awards, and recognition you've received in the past that might give you an edge over the competition. Buy a copy to keep reading.
