were holding activities in the other rooms When I finally got to the classroom where the choir was practicing one of the choristers was singing the same song I came to get the lyrics I stood at the entrance of the door overwhelmed by the melody I cried and sank onto the floor tellement it was good I had never heard such a beautiful song before It was heaven itself as I listened I was weighed down and when the girl finished singing the choirmaster took me to another room and asked me to wait there until the end of the practice for I told him I wanted the lyrics of that song We stayed there and when I returned to the choir room the practice was over and many choristers had left I met with some who were still in the classroom We talked and they asked me about the song I came to get the lyrics When I tried to sing the song I couldn't remember Come on I knew the song and I was singing it at home before I got there and the chorister also sang it but now they couldn't help me because I couldn't remember the song I was perplexed I thought hard yet nothing came to mind The song was gone That was when I woke up from sleep and then I tried to sing the song without success I hummed melodies and it still wasn't the song In the dream I was certain I knew the song I have received several songs in dreams over the years Those songs were usually original not like the ones I compose They came to me complete and I heard the perfection thereof in the dream It used to happen that I woke up after hearing the song and so I could hum it and so I took the phone and recorded what I could remember of it Before I had a phone I would sing it endlessly in the night so I don't forget in the morning The songs I didn't record or sing disappeared in the morning and I couldn't retrieve them Yet the songs are never as perfect as I heard them in the dream In the dream it is complete the melody is clear unwavering The lyrics are accurately articulated and sung with angelic voices But when I wake up I can only hum the melody I don't remember the lyrics maybe a few words and many times I sing wrong I only gather bits and pieces of what I heard so they don't completely vanish So I would put my own lyrics to the melody and sing the songs They're still good for I enjoy singing them but they're not even close to the beauty I heard in the dream There were three songs in this particular dream and they were like Easter songs It used to happen that after Easter like Easter Monday or Tuesday I would receive a song in the dream or a revelation that I would write down It didn't happen this Easter which was on April 1 yet something occurred in the night of the 20th They were three songs and they were so beautiful and the last one surpassed the two by far I once had a dream where my brothers and I saw a cartoon which was the consummate of every cartoon I'd ever seen It was total bliss The setting was like a bright village it was something between Naruto and Avatar The script wasn't traditional and there was no fighting And it was so good Abba Father Jean Galot,
