A History and Guide to Judaic Dictionaries and Concordances Shimeon Brisman, 2000 This volume which constitutes the third in the series Jewish Research Literature is divided into two parts Part One offers detailed descriptions of the various Judaic dictionaries with biographical information on their compilers beginning with Rav Saadiah Gaon s early tenth century Egron and concluding with modern dictionaries compiled in recent years Bibliographical lists and summaries arranged chronologically according to date of publication supplement the text The narrative is written in nontechnical style but technical information appears in the footnotes Part Two which deals with concordances citation collections proverbs and folk sayings will appear separately

Handbook of Children's Literacy Terezinha Nunes, Peter Bryant, 2003-12-31 PETER BRYANT TEREZINHA NUNES The time that it takes children to learn to read varies greatly between different orthographies as the chapter by Sprenger Charolles clearly shows and so do the difficulties that they encounter in learning about their own orthography Nevertheless most people who have the chance to learn to read do in the end read well enough even though a large number experience some significant difficulties on the way Most of them eventually become reasonably efficient spellers too even though they go on make spelling mistakes at any rate if they are English speakers for the rest of their lives So the majority of humans plainly does have intellectual resources that are needed for reading and writing but it does not always find these resources easy to marshal What are these resources Do any of them have to be acquired Do different orthographies make quite different demands on the intellect Do people differ significantly from each other in the strength and accessibility of these resources If they do are these differences an important factor in determining children s success in learning to read and write These are the main questions that the different chapters in this section on Basic Processes set out to answer

Links in the Chain Naomi Pasachoff, 1997-12-18 Judaism or that which has united the successive generations of Jews into one people is not only a religion it is a dynamic religious civilization

Mordecai Menachem Kaplan from Questions Jews Ask 1956 In assessing what their Jewish identities mean to them Jews today sometimes describe themselves as links in a chain of tradition that stretches back to biblical times In this collection of biographies of Jewish thinkers from ancient times to the present the links in that chain come to life through the dramatic stories of 41 shapers of Jewish tradition From Hillel whose teaching more than twenty centuries ago set Judaism on its post biblical course to Yitzhak Rabin the Noble Peace Prize winning Prime Minister of Israel who helped to broker a peace settlement between the Israelis and the Palestinians these men and women all left an indelible mark on Jewish practice scholarship or nationalism In individual biographical essays Naomi Pasachoff explores the contributions of philosophers poets and philanthropists of mystics statesmen and scholars of religious organizers and Zionist leaders In so doing she uncovers surprising facts about well known figures For example Theodor Herzl is widely honored as the father of the modern state of Israel but did you know that he once dreamed of leading all the Jews of Vienna to St Stephan Cathedral to undergo mass baptism Readers who recognize Rashi as the most famous of all biblical commentators may be startled to learn that his concise style was a function of his tight budget The book includes suggestions for further reading an appendix a glossary and an index Illustrations and photographs accompany the text and a biographical fact box for each profile provides for easy reference All these features make Links in the Chain an ideal introduction to Jewish role models for younger readers and a vital reference for all interested in Jewish history Moreover the book is a reminder that Jewish tradition is still evolving and that each reader has the potential to contribute to it 41 extended essays profile the lives and contributions of Jewish heroes including Johanan ben Zakkai the spiritual and intellectual leader who reshaped Jewish life after the destruction of the Temple in 70 C E Dona Gracia Nasi the outstanding 16th century leader who led the equivalent of an underground railroad to lead fugitive Marranos to safety Rebecca Gratz said to have been the model for the character Rebecca in Walter Scott's Ivanhoe who spearheaded the development of Jewish Sunday schools in the United States Leopold Zunz whose transformation of Jewish scholarship in the 19th century ultimately led to the existence of Judaica departments and programs in major universities Lily Montagu whose unsatisfying Orthodox childhood as a child of privilege in Victorian England transformed her into a 20th century leader of British and world liberal Judaism Isaac Mayer Wise the early leader of Reform Judaism in the United States who conceived of and helped bring into existence many of the institutions of contemporary American Judaism Eliezer Ben Yehudah the father of modern Hebrew who nearly singlehandedly transformed Hebrew from an ancient religious language into a spoken modern one
