

Advanced Higher
Course Form
Specification 2010

Advanced Higher Mathematics

Course code:	MA2707
Scottish Qualifications Board:	QA2707
Subject:	Level 7 (university) course code
Grade range:	AAA to ABB

This course must provide a coherent programme of learning related to the course programme to ensure successful progression to university level. It is designed for students who are confident in their mathematical and mathematical applications (including using skills, knowledge and understanding about calculus).

The programme is not designed and assessed independently of the university entrance, required for degree level study.

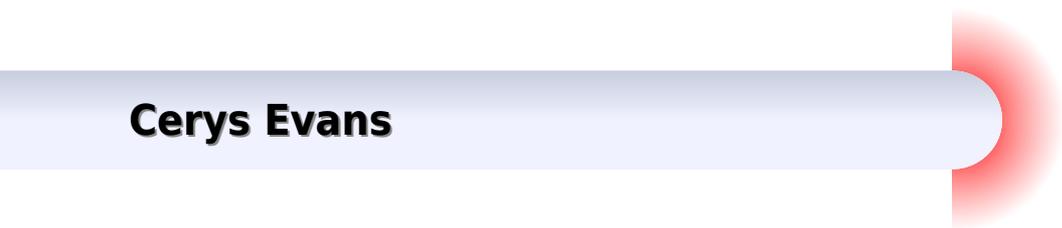

This information for the specification is available to support the qualification only for a multi-institution level. It is a requirement, therefore, for every participating centre to ensure it fully complies for any other national or local programme, program, syllabus, etc. See Additional Information.
