

Advanced Placement: English: Literature and Composition

Brief Description of Course

AP Literature and Composition is a college course taught in a high school setting in which we will read and analyze writing of literary merit from a variety of genres and time periods. We will write frequently about the author's use of language to provide meaning and pleasure. Our analyses will consider a work's structure, style, and themes as well as such smaller scale elements as the use of figurative language, imagery, symbolism, and tone. Other types of writing will include creative, individual response, and persuasive pieces.

Unit Information

Unit Name or Timeframe:

Semester 1: Unit 1: Genres

Content and/or Skills Taught:

In this unit students will learn the characteristics of various types of literature and begin to explore how the structure of each helps create meaning. Students will begin to construct an understanding of how authors craft a work of literary merit and how an author's voice makes a work unique. Students will practice using the techniques we observe to craft our own writing as we respond to and analyze these works. We will begin an on-going study of contextually based vocabulary.

Major Assignments and/or Assessments:

*Annotated Glossary Cards - complete a set of 30 (to be completed over the course of the semester) in which students will define, provide an example of, and analyze the use of specific literary terms.

*Read and analyze both structure and meaning of the following: Novel (Heart of Darkness), Non-fiction ("On Compassion"), Short Story ("A Jury of Her Peers"), Drama (Triffles), and Poetry (selections from Paradise Lost and "Ode on a Grecian Urn").

*Learn to evaluate on demand writing using a scoring guide and anchor papers.

Unit Name or Timeframe:

Semester 1: Unit 2: Personal Essay for College Admission/Scholarship Application

Content and/or Skills Taught:

Students will compare and contrast expository writing with the fiction we have read to identify qualities to use in our own writing. We will practice techniques such as anecdote, dialogue, imagery, and use of varied sentence structure and word choice to create a personal essay. Students will learn and use revision techniques that include both teacher and peer feedback to hone a final draft to use for college and scholarship applications.

Major Assignments and/or Assessments:

*Students will complete at least one personal essay for college admission.

Unit Name or Timeframe:

Semester 1: Unit 3: Tragedy

Content and/or Skills Taught:

Students will learn Aristotle's criteria for the classification of tragedy. Students will continue to explore how structure helps create meaning, in this case how tragedy follows a particular pattern. We will begin to identify how cultural paradigm influences our definitions but also
