The interviews, ranging from advertising legend Mike Hughes to leaders of the next generation like David Oakley and Susan Credle, reveal much about the nature of creativity and why we all respond to certain ads, either with a laugh or a purchase. Tuten's skillful questions also highlight how these men and women learned the craft, found mentors, and landed jobs doing things they didn't know you could get paid to do. They talk about successes and failures, their hopes and dreams, and the direction of the industry as we move into the age of social and branded media. John Sweeney, Distinguished Professor, School of Journalism, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, Former Associate Creative Director, Foote Cone & Belding. In Advertisers at Work, readers will gain insights from the most interesting people working in the field of advertising today, told in their own words. Demystifies the craft of advertising from the perspectives of creatives, media strategists, planners, and account executives. Provides insights, strategies, and tactics readers can put to work immediately. Offers predictions on the rapidly changing advertising landscape.
