Understanding and Managing Children's Behaviour through Group

Work Ages 3-5 Cath Hunter, 2016-04-14 Understanding and Managing Children s Behaviour through Group Work Ages 3 5 provides the reader with an insight into children s emotional well being and helps them to understand what and how children communicate and how to respond in a way that provides positive messages increases their emotional vocabulary and encourages them to change their behaviour It provides an alternative and effective child centred way of managing children s behaviour through introducing the concept of reflective language and other tools equipping staff with new skills that are transferable across the school in any role The book is divided into two sections enabling the reader to link theory with practice The first section takes the reader on a journey to help them understand the different factors that influence children s behaviour The second section of the book focuses on the group work programmes how they can be used their value and the impact they can have on children and the classroom environment as a whole The activities in the group work programme explore the concept of using reflective language as a behaviour management tool and are designed to motivate build confidence self esteem and resilience Useful pedagogical features throughout the book include Practitioner and classroom management tips and reflective tasks Strategies and practical ideas for staff to use to help them engage more deeply with the contents of the book Flexible tried and tested group work programmes designed to promote inclusion rather than exclusion Clear step by step instructions for delivering the work programmes Case studies showing behaviour examples with detailed explanations for the behaviour and strategies to respond to it The book is aimed at all early years practitioners and any students training to work with children of E Y F S age It is also recommended reading for SENCOs and trainee teachers and will also be useful for therapists who work with children and are looking at delivering other approaches in their work

Postdevelopmental Approaches to Digital Arts in Childhood Marissa McClure Sweeny, Mona Sakr, 2025-01-23 This book deconstructs traditional developmentalist logic around children's engagement with digital media where the focus is on what the digital does to children's bodies and brains Rather than seeing children as vulnerable and passive recipients the authors position children as co creators and digital artists embracing the richness of children's digital play The chapters cover a wide range of topics including indigenous digital art digital drawing learning to code social media and artificial intelligence The authors use a diverse range of theoretical perspectives including posthumanism feminist new materialism social semiotics socialcultural and multimodal approaches to childhood to generate new ways of seeing the relationship between children and the digital The book includes chapters from academics and practitioners based in Australia Canada Sweden the UK and the USA and a companion website showcasing innovative and interactive material including visual essays and soundscapes George Broomhall's Corn Trade News, 1911 The Michigan Journal, 2012 Need Joelle Charbonneau, 2015-11-03 No one gets something for nothing We all should know better Teenagers at Wisconsin's Nottawa High School are drawn deeper into a social networking site that promises to grant their every need regardless of the consequences Soon the site turns sinister with simple pranks escalating to malicious crimes The body count rises In this chilling YA thriller the author of the best selling Testing trilogy examines not only the dark side of social media but the dark side of human nature Makerspace Sound and Music Projects for All Ages Isaac W.
