ADVANCED ENGINEERING ECONOMICS

The book cover features a stylized illustration. At the top, a white computer monitor sits on a white base. From the monitor, a series of dark, swirling lines spiral downwards, resembling a funnel or a path. The background is a light grey sky with several red, starburst-like patterns. The bottom half of the cover is a dark grey area representing water, where the swirling lines from the monitor are reflected. In the water, there are green pine trees and a small, dark, rectangular object floating on the surface.
